Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord;

through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever,

that your truth is firmly established as the heavens. (R.)

2. Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face,

who find their joy every day in your name,

who make your justice the source of their bliss. (R.)

3. For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory of their strength;

it is by your favour that our might is exalted:

for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord;

our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel. (R.)

Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people.

Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia!

No sooner have we set out on our journey with Jesus for the long haul through Ordinary Time than he proves an uncomfortable companion. Choose me, he says, over family ties. Don't flee the cross, embrace it. Don't hold on to your life, let go of it. These are hard sayings that still disturb after all this time. They find the chinks in our armour, they pierce our well-guarded defences. But for those prepared to take them to heart, they promise so much – the joy of a graced life, freedom from fear, the trust of a child. Now is not the time to walk away

The Annual Collection for the Pope will be taken up on July 8/9 in our parish. Through this collection we have the opportunity to support the Pope's pastoral care for the people around the world

A member of our Parish community was privileged to attend the reception for the Peace Run on Wednesday last. Children from St Pat's and the Consolidated School read peace poems, Youth Ambassadors from the Shire told of what peace meant to them and children from the kindergarten presented the runners with art work depicting what peace meant to them. This art work will hang in the coliseum in Rome at the end of the run.

Archie Roach was the recipient of the Moyne Shire Peace Award.

Dates to keep in mind:

Archives:

The history of our Parish is important and needs to be kept. We are beginning to collect articles, photos of our history which will be preserved in one place. At present these things are spread far and wide - even as far away as Ballarat. The history of our parish will include Infant Jesus Koroit, St Joseph's Church and School, Yambuk, St John's Church Orford, St Patrick's School, Church and Presbytery Port Fairy and St Joseph's, Hawkesdale.

If you have any articles or photos on any of these, please contact me and I will copy them and return them to you.

You can phone me on 55681734 Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 9.00am to 11.45am. You can bring them to me at the school hall or post them to me (PO Box 8, Port Fairy). It will be a big job and take some considerable time but I am sure the result will be worthwhile. Jean (Fitzgibbon)

Why start an archives ?

every institution needs an official memory. concept of accountability requires full documentation. as evidence of the past, the archives constitute our cultural heritage.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSS

Today we are faced with the cost of discipleship, but we are also comforted by the promise of the providence of God. Baptism is for us both death and life. Through it we enter into Christ's death and we die to lives of selfishness and sin. Through it we rise with Christ to a new life freed from everything that previously held us down. As glorious as this new life might be, it requires death to our old ways of living, and this is always difficult. The cost of discipleship cuts right to the core of our beings, it lays bare the very structures of kinship. Baptism recreates us as children of God; through it we are given a new life and born into a new family. The bonds of discipleship are now even stronger than the bonds of blood. Discipleship requires our very lives. As disciples we can no longer put ourselves first. We must be willing to spend ourselves and to be spent, to serve others in the day to day unfolding of life. We may find such commitment very demanding, but that is part of the cost of discipleship. God promises that if we lose our lives in this way, we will really gain them. If we are unselfish in the way we share ourselves with others, we will be enriched through our generosity. If we spend ourselves and are spent in our service of others we will be filled with blessings unimaginable.
