*Today we farewell our much loved Parish Priest,
Fr Bill.*

We wish him good health and much enjoyment in his retirement, and we thank him for all he has done for us during his time here.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)

2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

3. The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation;
he has shown pity on all people.
Alleluia

Reflection

As I settle to pray, I take the time to relax, and to become aware of being in God's presence.

When I am ready, I read the psalm slowly a couple of times, in the spirit of Easter. Conscious that Jesus prayed this psalm, I may want to pray it with him – the Son who was raised up from death by his Father.

I spend time some time at his side, and give thanks to God for rescuing him from death.

Perhaps I can also pray it remembering the times the Lord has raised me from sin, dejection, trouble ... I speak to the Lord of this.

Maybe I can pray in thanksgiving for God changing my mourning into dancing?

I turn to think of others, close to me or worldwide, who are suffering in any way. I place them in God's hands, asking him to listen, have pity, and come to their aid.

I end my prayer with praise and thanks to God, slowly saying

Our Father ..

I come to my place of prayer, quieting my mind and spirit. I breathe gently, reminding myself that I am in the presence of my risen Lord. I rest here as long as I am comfortable.

Turning to the Gospel, I read it slowly. It is long but very vivid.

Maybe I can imagine the scene. What parts draw my attention?

Do I identify with Peter ...? In what way ...? Sitting with the disciples, what feelings arise as I contemplate this appearance of Jesus?

Perhaps I am drawn by Jesus's gentleness, his thoughtfulness, his humanity. Or, seeing echoes of earlier stories, I may be struck by his non-judgmental acceptance of his doubting disciples. I speak to the Lord of how I feel.

I turn to look at my own life. Can I see the risen Jesus in my work, my neighbours and surroundings? Maybe I shall try to be more aware this week.
