EASTER GREETINGS FROM FR MARK CHIA: Fr Mark has sent us a card wishing us all a very blessed and happy Easter. He continues to be thankful for his first year of ordained ministry with us in 2019 and is based at the Redemptorist Monastery in North Perth where we're invited to call on him when we're in WA.

WILLIAM MENNEN RIP: We pray for Bill Mennen, a resident of Wattle Rise Nursing Home, who passed away on Thursday and whose Funeral Prayers will be at Phelans Jubilee Chapel this coming Thursday 22nd April at 1.00pm.

NEW ST KEVIN'S, AVOCA MONTHLY MASS: When our St Patrick's Redbank church was sold, the intention was to transfer the 11.00a.m. third Wednesday of each month Mass to St Kevin's, Avoca whenever possible. This coming Wednesday will be the first of these Masses, following which we can have a light lunch as we regularly did at Redbank or patronise a café or whatever else we may decide to do. As with Redbank, this monthly Mass will be our Parish Mass for the day and all are welcome from throughout our parish and beyond.

PATHWAYS VICTORIA COMMUNITY CONSULTATION: The Catholic dioceses of Victoria have announced a new way of offering care and support for survivors of child sexual abuse. Further information about this and how to be part of this Community Consultation can be found on its website: www.pathwaysvictoria.com

FAITH INSPIRING SCIENCE: The Vatican Observatory is one of the oldest active astronomical observatories in the world and remains at the forefront of scientific research on a broad range of topics from examining the tiniest specks of interplanetary dust to the origin and structure of the Universe. Its History, Latest News and many other facets can now be explored on its newly updated website that we're encouraged to explore: www.vaticanobservatory.org
