Colac and Apollo Bay Parishes are a community of believers, who strive to bring Christ's good news to all people in the district. Through service, caring and love we aim to create an environment of respect and understanding in which everyone can grow. We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years.

WEEKLY NOTICES

Congratulations/Thanks! To all who attended the Easter Ceremonies. All who supported the community in various 'ministerial' roles; those who prepared our Churches. Appreciation for the very generous support of our Parishes, to our Priests including our retired priests in the Diocese and support to Christians in the Holy Land, Project Compassion Giving (is being processed currently). This Year appears to be a very generous Gift.

Apollo Bay: I) Friends: "Just letting you know I am about to reach a milestone and retire and travel around Australia with my wife for 12 months from the middle of May.

In terms of maintaining records and ensuring new volunteers are assessed for these requirements against the Diocese's matrix, this will sit with Mandy, the Parish Assistant working with Fr Michael in the Colac Parish. Mandy will take over numerous of my duties and continue to operate from the Colac Parish, just with broader responsibilities including the Apollo Bay Parish. Thanks for your assistance over the past 5 years. It has been a pleasure working with you and knowing your wisdom has been confidently there if required. Cheers and best wishes"...Steve

Steve Fox - Business Manager, Our Lady Star of The Sea Parish - Apollo Bay, Lorne

2)Apollo Bay: Special Meeting: "To Our Fellow Parishioners - Could you please attend a Lunchtime Meeting After Mass this coming Sunday. Sunday May 1st Straight after Mass has finished. If possible, please bring a plate to share at Lunchtime. We will be discussing how we as parishioners can best run and be responsible for our beautiful Church. As we are a small group, we need to have us all on board with the caretaking of all the things that enable the church to function. In Anticipation." Steve.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Response.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment, his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

Response.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing.
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONFERENCE ELECTION STATEMENT 2022

Towards a Better Kind of Politics

Australian Catholic Bishops Conference President Archbishop Mark Coleridge said no one political party fully embodies Catholic social teaching. The bishops are, however, offering an election statement to encourage Catholics and people of good will to reflect on the good they can do for their community by using their vote for the good of all.

Archbishop Coleridge said "we all long for what Pope Francis calls 'a better kind of politics, one truly at the service of the common good'". The statement highlights several key issues that the bishops have identified and which they encouraged readers to consider when preparing to vote.

Among them is the provision of high-quality palliative care across Australia, "to ensure that no one is pressured into choosing assisted suicide because palliative care is unavailable".

The statement advocates for vulnerable people in the community, including those in need of aged care, First Nations peoples, asylum-seekers and refugees. It calls for a government committed to the common good that will deliver a medium to long-term plan for eradicating poverty in Australia.

"We are blessed in Australia to be able to participate in the help shape the civic life of our Country."

A PRAYER FOR THE ELECTION

God of this land and of every people, who shape all things according to your own design
and write your law in every human heart:
we thank you for this country we call home,
from the First Nations people to others born here
and those you have gathered from across the earth.
We pray for the citizens of our land in this troubled time,
that we may be committed to justice,
to the dignity of each human life,
and to solidarity with all Australians and with the world.
Guide all who seek election to serve the nation;
may the Holy Spirit inspire them to pursue a better politics that is wise and courageous and governs for the good of all.

May all of us see and hear you in the most vulnerable,
that we may respond to the cry of the earth
and the cry of the poor,
that we may respond to you.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
