(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

1. O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!
Zion, praise your God!
He has strengthened the bars of your gates,
he has blessed the children
within you. (R.)

2. He has established peace on your borders,
he feeds you with finest wheat.
He sends out his word to the earth
and swiftly runs his command. (R.)

Assistance Required Port Fairy

As you all know Henk, our Sacristan, has not been well. It is time for him to slow down and so we are therefore looking for people - men or women- to act as sacristan. If we have several offers, we will be able to roster people so it will not be such a total commitment. If you can help, or if you would like to speak to someone about what is required, please see Fr Bill.

Youth and young adults: Pope Francis' Online Survey now open

Please encourage young adults you know to do this survey (Pope Francis wants to hear from everyone whether they are actively connected to church or not). This online survey is seeking opinions and perspectives of young people (16-29) as part of a national consultation process that will inform the world-wide Synod on Youth that Pope Francis is convening in October 2018. The survey closes on 2 July 2017. Access the survey on the Ballarat Diocese website www.ballarat.catholic.org.au For more information: youth@ballarat.catholic.org.au or 5337 7125.

Anointing of the Sick

The revised form for celebration of the sacraments allows for the communal celebration of this sacrament, a communal anointing of the sick and the aged, preferably in the context of the Mass. As in the case of the other sacraments, this practice highlights the communal dimension and expresses the concern of all members of the community for one another. As one member suffers, all suffer, and as one member shares the joy of the sacrament, all rejoice with him.

For this reason the communal celebration of Anointing of the Sick should be attended by a substantial representation of the parish community - to show the community's care, love and support. There are sad cases where the priest is called to the hospital bed of one who has no family relatives; the nurses are otherwise occupied, no friends or other members of the community can be found. In such cases, the priest represents the community, but where possible 'the church' should be there.

Reflection by Dianne Bergant

This feast harkens back to the celebration of Holy Thursday. By way of the metaphors of food and drink, its readings provide us with a look at the mystery of divine presence. They first provide a picture of a God who feeds us. In the past God set a table in freedom, and then provided food that enabled our ancestors to survive. God fed those who were needy, not those who were worthy. Jesus offered sustenance to the crowds that gathered around him. It was not manna from heaven that he offered but his own flesh and blood as food and drink. This food and drink are the pledge of eternal life. Those who eat this bread and drink this cup are caught up in a profound unity with God, a unity not envisioned in the wilderness experience. There is a new overlay of significance. Jesus' claim to give his flesh and blood was a bold one, Paul's seems even bolder. He states that partaking of the bread and the cup not only joins us with Christ, but actually makes us participants in the body and blood of Christ. Humanity and divinity are joined as one. The Eucharist is a sign of unity in another way. Joined to the body and blood of Christ, we are joined to each other. We are one body and that body is Christ. The Eucharist is truly a celebration of thanksgiving: thanksgiving for our transformation and thanksgiving for our unity.
