ST JOSEPH: "THE ACCEPTING ONE"

Joseph's lived experience of God's love led him to accept very difficult situations. Relationships, rather than the letter of the law guided him in making loving and courageous decisions.

Pope Francis: "The nobility of Joseph's heart is such that what he learned from the law, he made dependent on charity. The spiritual path that he traces for us is not one that explains but accepts."

St Mary of the Cross: "Whatever troubles may be before you, accept them bravely, remembering whom you are trying to follow."

NEXT SUNDAY, 10:30am MASS

Imitating Joseph's discerning heart, and his tender care of Mary and Jesus, we will open ourselves to a new tenderness among ourselves and in our relationships.

Let us pray: Joseph we honour you; In your unconditional love and protection of Mary... In your courageous trust in God's provident care... In your silent listening to the whisperings of God in your heart... In your acceptance of the mysterious action of God in your life... In your nurturing love for Mary and Jesus... In your fatherly instruction of Jesus in the ways of wisdom, love, mercy and forgiveness. Amen.
