FR TOM BROPHY 27/1/1940-28/4/2024:

Many of us know Fr Tom from when he has been with us for weekend Mass, Lent Reconciliation and St Pat's Day celebrations at Avoca. Ordained in 1972 and serving throughout our diocese, he retired in 2015 and his health has been deteriorating for some time due to a double whammy of dementia and Parkinson's till his death aged 84. He will be farewelled by our diocese at his Funeral Mass 10.00am tomorrow (Monday) at St Pat's Cathedral, Ballarat followed by his burial in the clergy section of Ballarat Lawn Cemetery.

May he enjoy fullness of life with the risen Lord.

ST MARY'S STATUE:

In a few weeks, the fence between St Augustine's church and school will be realigned so school children can use the lawn area in front of and beside the old presbytery. While we will lose our current accessibility to Mary's statue and surrounding grotto, the children will greatly benefit from this.

AMPHITHEATRE SALE 18TH MAY:

There will be a "garage sale" at St Pat's church 9.00am-3.00pm on Saturday 18th May to sell interior items as we prepare to sell the church.

ST AUGUSTINE'S NEW ROSTERS:

Please pick up from the centre tables.
