ARRANGEMENTS for 2016: by Fr Gary

Some decisions we must make are difficult.

Bishop Paul Bird CsSR has appointed me as the Priest, responsible for the Parish of Gordon, encompassing the communities of Ballan, Gordon and Springbank, which includes three schools. This role will be in addition to my role as Parish Priest of Creswick and Daylesford.

In order to do justice to this ministry some adjustments will need to be made in 2016.

As the most important aspect of our faith is the celebration of the Eucharist, we will need to make greater use of the major Parish Churches for Sunday Masses. Therefore, at the end of the Easter season 2016, the Churches of Clunes and Blampied will be closed.

I appreciate your support as your Parish Priest and look forward to developing our relationship as we work together in building strong communities of faith at Creswick, Daylesford and Gordon.

During Lent, the Church gives us the Stations of the Cross, allowing us to reflect on the events of Holy Week.

Perhaps these 'Stations of Christmas' can remind us of the events leading to the wonderful miracle of the Lord's birth. Why not use them as a basis for your family prayer during the Christmas season?

5th Station: Arrival in Bethlehem

At last, Mary and Joseph arrive in Bethlehem, now bustling with travellers. Tired and dusty from the trip, they search for lodging. Mary says they must hurry, for her baby will be born this night. But no one has room to take them in.

Holy God, disappointments are so hard. We cannot understand why we must endure hardship, even when we try to do your will, or why favour seems to go to those less deserving. Help us to remember that even our disappointments can serve to give you glory.

6th Station: The Manger

As despair closes in on the Holy Family, the innkeeper tells them of the stable where they are welcome to stay. Here Mary can find a warm, private place to deliver her baby. They make their way to the stable, where horses, cattle, and other animals become their lodging companions. Mary may rest from the journey.

Loving Father, may we always be open to your kindness. Help us to accept your gifts at face value, to realise that you always give us what is best for us. May we be grateful for the gifts given in your love .

3rd SUNDAY IN ADVENT Blessing of the Advent Wreath

Fr Gary: Father, look upon us with love and fill us with the Spirit of Jesus, your son. Help us to love you and our neighbour as we await the coming of our Lord.

All: We make this prayer in his name.
Amen.

Lighting of the third candle:
the Shepherds' candle.

Commentator: The third candle recalls how the shepherds were told of Jesus' birth. At first they were filled with fear, but they went to Bethlehem to worship the baby Jesus, and they spread the good news of his coming.

The candle is lit.

All: God of light & truth, the lighting of the shepherds' candle adds more light to our church this morning. May this light always shine through us so we can find ways to share this light with others. Amen.

GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergent

We are at the midpoint of Advent. Today we celebrate Gaudete Sunday. The principal theme of the day is joy. According to Paul, joy is one of the fruits of the Spirit (cf. Gal 5:22). Such joy is a religious sentiment, not emotional happiness. Along with gratitude, it is the heart's response to God's goodness. Zion is told to shout for joy because it has been saved by God from its enemies and because God is in the midst of the people. The psalm response proclaims the same message; the reading from Philippians announces that the LORD is near. This is cause for joy.

Advent is a time for joy, not primarily because we are anticipating the anniversary of the birth of Christ, but because God is already in our midst (Immanuel). The readings for this Sunday assure us that God is with us, not as a judge but as a Saviour. We rejoice over the saving acts of God that make us confident of God's care and unafraid of whatever may cross our paths. We rejoice in the peace of God that surpasses all understanding. Advent joy is like the delight that fills a woman who has just given birth, even if it occurred in the throes of birthpangs. Advent joy springs from the realisation that the presence of God in our midst can so transform our lives that the promises of peace and security will be fulfilled.

Advent joy is the way we live in the tension between already and not yet.
