First Reading Jb 38:1. 8-11

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 106:23-26. 28-31. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. (R.)
2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress. (R.)
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed. (R.)
4. They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. (R.)

Second Reading 2 Cor 5:14-17

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

Gospel Acclamation Lk 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 4:35-41

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

Prayers of the Faithful

Reader: That the Church will persevere in times of doubt and fear. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That nations will proclaim an era of peace and justice. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who are tossed about by misfortune and chaos will be calmed by Christ's presence. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That the rollout of the Covid-19 vaccines may proceed smoothly and equitably around the world and that poorer nations will not be left behind. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who live in constant fear will find comfort in knowing that Christ is always beside them. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That all those who come to our land seeking refuge from violence or poverty are treated with respect and dignity. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That men and women who minister to the sick and dying will be sustained by Christ, the great healer. In your mercy:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who have died in Christ will enter eternal life: In your mercy

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Fr. Hugh Thomas wishes to thank all who have been praying for him. He has completed his chemotherapy and his lymphoma cancer is in remission. He has also had a successful operation on his ear to remove the last vestige of skin cancer.

He is now ready to launch into a very busy schedule for the rest of the year, starting with a week's mission for June 25-July 3. He also asks you to continue to pray for blessing on his ministry. God Bless you all.

$500:00 donated to St Vincent de Paul

Assist a Student Program.

A report from Maryanne Comitti, the Religious Education Leader at St Patrick's in Stawell $500.00 was donated to Caritas Australia - Project Compassion Appeal.
$400:00 donated to Fiona Elsey Cancer Research Centre.

This research centre is Australia's only regionally based cancer research centre. Students wanted to support our Religious Educator from Ballarat Jim Weight who is playing a major part in fundraising for the centre. Our theme overriding of our fundraising efforts was to follow the words of St Oscar Romero, to "aspire not to have more, but to be more"
