Saturday 26th October and Sunday 27th October 2019

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.

Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION by Fr Francis Fernandez

THE NEED FOR PRAYER

In a continuation of last week’s Mass, we again find that prayer is the theme of today’s Gospel. Here Jesus prefaces the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector by insisting to his followers that “they ought always to pray and not lose heart.” Taking into account all of his teachings, Jesus spoke more often about the need for prayer than about any other matter except faith and charity.

The Master tells us in many different ways that prayer is absolutely necessary if we are to follow him. At the beginning of his pontificate, St John Paul II declared: “For me, prayer is the first priority. Prayer is the basic prerequisite to service of the Church and the world . . . Every believer should always think of prayer as an essential and indispensable component of one’s vocation. It is the ‘opus divinum’ which precedes and overshadows every work. We all know well that faithfulness to prayer, or its neglect, is a test of the vitality of religious life, apostolate and Christian fidelity.” (Papal Address at the National Shrine, Washington DC, 7th October 1979).

Without prayer, we cannot hope to follow Christ in the middle of the world. We need prayer as much as we need food to eat and air to breathe. This explains why the devil endeavours to keep Christians from praying with superficial excuses.

Some days before giving his U.S. address, the Pope had reminded a gathering of clergy and religious in Ireland: “A constant danger with priests, even zealous priests, is that they become so immersed in the work of the Lord that they neglect the Lord of the work.” (Address at Maynooth Seminary, 1st October 1979.) This is a danger not just to priests, but to every Christian. For what good is the most energetic apostolate if it is accomplished at the cost of one’s friendship with the Lord? The achievement would end up worthless: a human endeavour where we sought only ourselves. The remedy for this malady is clear, as St John Paul continued in his Irish address: “We must find time — we must make time — to be with the Lord in prayer.”

Let us look and see whether our prayer, our friendship with Jesus, really influences our life of work, our family life, our friendships, our apostolate . . . We know that everything is different once we have talked it over with Jesus. As St Teresa of Avila reminds us, “It is in our prayer that the Lord gives light to understand his truths.” Without the help of this light all would be darkness. This divine light will permit us to penetrate the mystery of God and of existence.
