Australian Catholic Church Plenary Council 2020 – Listen, Dialogue, Discern

To promote our own prayerful thinking about our responses to the question – what is the Holy Spirit asking of the Church in Australia? We look forward to the many varied voices of Cathedral parishioners being heard. Your 200 words are invited. This week Maria Madden of Ballarat writes - *Reflecting on the Hymn Christ be our Light (GA 404): Longing for light we wait in darkness: we know the darkness that affects our communities. Longing for Truth we turn to You: we are all equal before God, we have different gifts to be shared with all, we turn to Jesus in the Eucharist, we share a meal, prayer, community. The Truth is we are nourished @ Table, so as to be nourishment for others. Jesus is in me, surrounds me and He asks me to be Him to others. Make us your own, your Holy people: Light for the world to see. Jesus asks me to be, to listen & act- (James 1: 27).

Mark 7: Jesus said to the Pharisees: You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions- We need to be re-educated in the ways of Jesus, a new understanding of community. Challenge the misbeliefs. Make us Your living voice to reach out to our wider communities. If we act locally we can then use our local experience to springboard us Australia wide.

Christ be our Light, Shine in our hearts, Shine in your Church gathered today.

Gospel Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSS

Jesus opens our eyes to the reality of God's presence in our midst, in the goodness of people and in the tenderness of life, even in its vulnerability. He opens our ears to hear the word of God spoken to us by others, revealed to us through the created world.

There is an eschatological dimension to being open to the word of God, because we are opened to hear something from the future. The prophets always speak about this future in the present tense. They see it happening already. Isaiah proclaims, 'Here is your God!' and the world is transformed. Jesus says 'Be open.' The good news always opens us to future possibilities, to personal and communal transformation, to a new creation. With the word of God, the future invades our present.

Although the eschatological future is already present to us, it is only unfolding, it has not yet opened completely. We still judge each other by appearances. We still miss the presence of God in the poor and the dispossessed, in those who suffer from disease or war or loneliness. We still shun those of another race, or those who have been shaped by another culture, or those who worship God in a different way. Although the eschatological future is already present, we have not yet put aside all of the biases of the past, we have not yet been fully transformed. But God has spoken, God has come to save us. God is trustworthy; God keeps faith forever.
