

SPECIAL VISITORS TO MILDURA

On Sunday, December 6 thirty-three students accompanied by two priests and three teachers from Tonga visited Mildura and led the singing at the 9am Mass.

The students were on a tour from their home island Vava'u which is the second largest island in the Tongan group of islands in the Pacific. They attend Peter Chanel College.

The priests who accompanied them were Fr Ika Kaihea who works among Tongan people living in Australia and Father Lole Lakai who is the parish Priest of Vava'u. The group are away from their homeland for approximately two months as they visit Tongan people scattered throughout Australia. They arrived in Canberra and have visited Sydney, Melbourne, Mildura, and will go on to Griffiths in NSW before touring New Zealand for a month and returning to their home in Vava'u
