

The Anzac tradition—the ideals of courage, endurance and mateship that are still relevant—was established on 25 April 1915 when the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps landed on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

Today the meaning of Anzac day has been broadened to commemorate the lives of Australians killed in all the military operations in which Australia has been involved.

There were many celebrations around the country for Anzac Day to remember these courageous men and women. Below are some photos from schools in the Ballarat Diocese.

Photos:

1. Bodie Burnham and Alannah Morello at Sacred Heart Primary School Mildura at the wreath presentation
2. St Patrick's College Ballarat lead the Anzac Day March
3. Mercy Regional College Camperdown students remember with a service
4. Tayla Munro and Kaine Burgess lay a wreath for Damascus College Ballarat
5. Trinity College Colac community gathered in front of their flagpoles and shared in a very reverent, reflective and prayerful service to commemorate Anzac Day
6. Students from St John's Primary School attend the Anzac Day Service in Dennington
7. St Thomas' Terang students presenting a wreath at the Anzac Day ceremony