

DAMASCUS PAST STUDENT RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS AWARD

Former Damascus College student, Stephanie Burzacott (alumni 2010), has graduated with Federation University Australia's top individual honour, the University Medal. The University Medal is awarded to a graduate who has consistently demonstrated exceptional academic achievement throughout their studies.

The University Medal is the highest academic award that can be bestowed on a graduating student by the University. Sr Marie Davey rsm, Deputy Principal of Damascus (pictured left with Stephanie) was delighted to attend the graduation ceremony on Wednesday May 11, 2016 held at Federation University and to see Stephanie receiving her prestigious award. Stephanie works at the State Revenue Office as a Human Resource Consultant. She completed her Bachelor of Management course in 2015 after previously completing a Bachelor of Arts degree.
