

CELEBRATING THE CONTINUING PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN THE PARISH OF COROROOKE AND THOMAS CARR COLLEGE

On Sunday, August 6, members of the Thomas Carr College community gathered at the Good Samaritan Campus for our annual Mass with the Cororooke Parish at St Brendan's Church, Coragulac. Mass was celebrated by Fr Jude Pirotta mssp, the Canonical Administrator of Thomas Carr College and the College Choir enhanced the celebration of the Eucharist with their wonderful voices, singing the various parts of the Mass and hymns of praise.

The Mass and lunch provided the opportunity to celebrate the continuing partnership between the Parish and the College.

The convent is an historic building, much loved and treasured by the members of the parish and more widely by many people across the western District. It has been part of the landscape for nearly a century and it has touched the lives of thousands of people, some very deeply, since it was opened in 1923.

Since 2014 and after extensive renovation the convent is now the Country Campus of Thomas Carr College located in Tarneit, a south-western suburb of Melbourne. The program operated by the College at the Good Samaritan Campus, provides the opportunity for groups of Year 9 students to spend three weeks at the Campus engaging in outdoor education, community services and units of work related life in rural Victoria.
