A TRIBUTE TO JOHN MOLONY

A special day to honour and celebrate the great contributions of John Molony in his early days as a priest in the Ballarat diocese and in later years in his distinguished career as Emeritus Professor at the Australian National University in Canberra.

John's energy, commitment, scholarship and the ideas expressed in his many publications have been and still are an inspiration for us as we address our spiritual life and those many challenging issues that are in the forefront of people's mind today.

Venue: Ballarat St. Patrick's Hall
3 Lyons St. South
