

FROM THE RESOURCE CENTRE

Garratt Publishing continues to add to the Friendly Guide Series with their latest publication A friendly guide to the prophets. This popular series is designed to provide information on themes fundamental to understanding the Catholic faith. The series includes: Jesus; New Testament; Old Testament; The Mass; The Vatican II; Prayer; Matthew; Mark; Luke; John and Paul.

In response to Laudato Si new publications have been circulated including from Garratt Publishing Care for our common home: an Australian group reading guide to Pope Francis Laudato Si. This magazine style publication is easy to read, offering a summary of each article in the encyclical with pertinent questions for group or individual reflection. Group sets of these magazines can be borrowed from the Resource Centre. (30 pages)

For further information on the resource visit the Garratt Publishing website:
<http://www.garrattpublishing.com.au/product/9781925009781/>

The Francis effect II: praised be to you – on care for our common home offers the considered opinions of twelve prominent Catholic leaders from quite diverse professions. The articles continue to explore the challenges Pope Francis has outlined with some practical applications. (98 pages)

