Come and hear Dr Gabriele Kuby, German author and international speaker on the topic of the gender revolution. A convert to the Catholic faith, she has a Masters in sociology from Konstanz University and is the author of 12 books. The gender revolution is a timely and pertinent topic as we are facing, right now, that revolution being pushed into our schools by way of programs such as the Safe Schools gay sex education. This is the only public talk Gabriele is giving in Melbourne so book now – don't miss out. Seating is limited.
