Bernadette's background is in pastoral care with St John of God Healthcare Warrnambool and later as the inaugural CPE Centre Director for St John of God Victoria. In 2017 Bernadette established a regional CPE Centre, the South West Victoria CPE Centre to support more isolated people engaged in spiritual care. Bernadette provides supervision within CPE programs and to those engaged in lay and ordained pastoral ministries and spiritual practice.

Bernadette has gained extensive experience with South West Healthcare Community Palliative Care as a Counsellor and Educator.

Bernadette enjoys her family, friends, travel and learning especially from the newest additions to the family.
