Making Connections: Try to empty yourself this week of the desire to be in control. Look for ways of being of service to others. Perhaps spend time with and learn from a child. What can we learn of faith from their example.

Marriage Tip: Lift high the Cross! Do you have a crucifix in a prominent place in your home? Seeing Jesus' sacrifice is a great reminder of the love spouses are called to every day.

Daily Prayer: O God, whose hand shelters the just and righteous, and whose favor rests on the lowly, banish hypocrisy from our hearts and purify us of all selfish ambition. Let your word sown among us bring forth a harvest of peace.

A Vocation View: When Jesus says, "If you wish to rank first, you must remain the last one of all and the servant of all," many people could immediately turn and walk away. Are you willing to serve as Jesus did?

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's second reading warns that a heart consumed with avarice and envy leads to jealousy, strife, conflicts, and disputes. A giving heart, in contrast, can sing instead with the psalmist, "Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness."

Pope's Prayer Intentions for September

Opportunities for the young

That opportunities for education and employment may increase for all young people.

Catechists

That catechists may give witness by living in a way consistent with the faith they proclaim.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all, Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community.

The news that every Catholic parish across Europe is being encouraged to take in at least one refugee family has prompted an outpouring of support and goodwill. Across social media people are applauding the decision, coming as it does on the eve of next year's Year of Mercy, as declared by Pope Francis.

Promoted by the Pope's pronouncement, we cannot shirk our obligations to extend Christian hospitality to some of the most vulnerable people in the world.

"Faced with the tragedy of tens of thousands of asylum seekers, fleeing death as victims of war and hunger...the Gospel calls on us and asks us to be the neighbours of the smallest and the most abandoned, to give them concrete hope." Pope Francis said in a recent address.

But I have God for my help. The Lord upholds my life. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good. R.

Mystery Of Faith

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

The Synod of Bishops XIV Ordinary General Assembly is convening in Rome in October 2015. In order to support this important gathering, the Australian Catholic Marriage and Family Council (ACMFC) has published this prayer.

Prayer for the Synod on the Family

4-25 OCTOBER 2015

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love, to you we turn with trust.

Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic churches.

Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division:
may all who have been hurt or scandalised find ready comfort and healing.

Holy Family of Nazareth, may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness of the family, and its beauty in God's plan.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Dear Father,

Corpus Christi College Building Appeal—Help Them Serve

On the weekend of the 26 and 27 September across all parishes in Victoria a special appeal will be conducted to raise funds for the addition of 8 new rooms for seminarians at Corpus Christi College, Carlton.

It is pleasing to be in the position of needing to accommodate a growing number of candidates for the priesthood.

The interest in attending Corpus Christi College is coming from candidates from Australia and around the world. They are preparing to minister in our increasingly multi-cultural parishes.

I thank you and your parishioners for any support you can give to this appeal. God Bless you.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

Paul Bird CSsR
Bishop of Ballarat.

We welcome with great joy Emmett Prendergast who is being baptised into the family of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 27 September. This year's Social Justice Statement is titled: 'For Those Who've Come Across the Seas: Justice for refugees and asylum seekers'.

The Statement addresses the divisive national debate over asylum seekers, especially those who arrive by boat. It reminds all Australians of the need to welcome and comfort those who have fled here from terror and danger, and to live out the example of Jesus, who never turned his back on those who were lost or suffering.

World meeting of Families, Philadelphia—'Love is our Mission: the family fully alive'. Pope Francis meets this week 22-27 Sep with families of the world, including our Australian pilgrims, as they come together in Philadelphia. May it be a sign of great joy and also a time of solidarity with families in difficulties.

In Jesus, God has truly come in the flesh. What Jesus has done is to make all things new, a new creation. As Isaiah promised, He has made the living waters of baptism flow in the desert of the world. He has set captives free from their sins, He has come that rich and poor might dine together in the Eucharistic feast.
