A DAY OF PRAYER FOR PEACE IN SYRIA

God of Compassion,
Hear the cries of the people of Syria
Comfort those who suffer violence
Console those who mourn the dead
Give strength to Syria's neighbouring countries
to welcome the refugees
Convert the hearts of those who have taken up arms
And protect those who are committed to peace.

God of hope,
Inspire leaders to choose peace over violence
and to seek reconciliation with their enemies
Inflame the Universal Church with compassion for the people of Syria
And give us hope for a future built on justice for all.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the Prince of Peace and Light of the world.
Amen.

Integrity in the Service of the Church

The Principles and Behaviours Associated with the Service of Church Workers

1. Church Workers are committed to Justice and Equity

For the Church justice is central to its mission and way of life. There is a thread of revelation that runs through the First Testament reminding the people of God that their ritual and activities are incomplete if they do not live and act justly as a community. The prophet Amos expresses this clearly: "I hate, I scorn your festivals, I take no pleasure in your solemn assemblies...but let justice flow like water, and uprightness like a never failing stream." (Amos 5:21,24) Micah continues the theme: "You have been told what is good and what the Lord requires of you: To act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God."(Micah 6:8) Jesus took up the same message many times in his stories and actions. The reign of God is revealed when the hungry are fed, the naked clothed, the poor and outcast gathered back into the communion of God's love and given their just share in the gifts of creation.

Principle People observing this principle will:

1.1 Church Workers exhibit justice and fairness in relationships and service.

1.1.1 Familiarise themselves with the social justice teachings of the Church as they apply to paid workers and volunteers.

1.1.2 Encourage just action among all those in whose interests they work.

1.1.3 Extend courtesy and respect to all in the workplace.

1.1.4 Refrain from attributing motives and blame to those seeking help.

1.1.5 Behave in ways that are not discriminatory and use language that is appropriate and not sarcastic or belittling of others.
