CATHOLIC MISSION

Please place Mission Sunday envelopes on the second collection. Because of the School's Morning Tea, the Trading Table has been returned to its usual time, the last Sunday of the month on October 25. The School is providing Morning tea after Mass to farewell Rita Chase, who has completed her long service leave. All up she served St Joseph's school for forty years. Because schoolchildren are leading the Mass it will be simplified, as usual.

ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS DAY

Sunday November 1 is All saints' Day, and we will remember our dead that day. There will be 2 Masses on Monday November 2, All Souls' Day as usual.

Cuppa & Trading Table after Mass next Sunday. Proceeds from Trading Table will go towards our contribution to Catholic Mission. After the Cuppa we move across to the Hall for barbeque. But before that we will need to set up the tables and trays for lighting the candles to remember our dead the following Sunday.

THANK YOU TO RITA CHASE

You are invited to go across to the Hall, where we will say a final thank you to Rita Chase for her forty years (including long service). Rita's successor, Patricia, is settling in well, but, as yet, she is far from being a She who must be obeyed. Some other staff member may usurp that valued title.

FESTA

A few months back, the festa committee had not found a priest available to preach the Mission and Festa this year. Then a Scalabrinian priest, Fr Angelo Cagna put up his hand. Well, he was a gem. I've heard it now from many. He was the BEST missionary Red Cliffs has had. On Saturday evening (the Anointing Mass) he preached in English as well as Italian. I was told he spoke beautifully.

Festa committee, thanks for bringing him here. Ad multos annos. Flags the priest
