33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. 15th November, 2015

Scripture Reflection

Although this is not the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the major theme found in the readings is the end of time. The events that will usher in and will take place during this time are described in apocalyptic terms. The struggles of life will culminate in a massive cosmic confrontation between the forces of good and those of evil. This last battle will be universal in scope, just like the first primordial conflict between chaos and God.

In some way, all of today's readings state that good will finally prevail over evil. In the last days Michael, the angelic warrior of God, will rise up. In the epistle, Christ is pictured seated triumphantly at the right hand of God with his enemies under his foot, a sign of conquest.

Finally, in the gospel, the Son of Man, the mysterious figure from apocalyptic literature, comes in the clouds with great power and glory. All of these images are apocalyptic; each of them is quite hopeful.

We read these stories at the close of the liturgical year, because we are coming to the conclusion of our yearly telling of the story of salvation. However, apocalyptic images are timely whenever we find ourselves in the throes of the battle with evil and it appears that we will succumb. These forms will remind us that good will be able to withstand evil. From this we will conclude that we need only trust in God. © Dianne Bergant CSS

Praying for our young people

In the Ballarat Diocese, 113 young people and their leaders are preparing to travel to Adelaide to participate in the Australian Catholic Youth Festival, December 3-5, 2015. We ask that you pray for them in the coming weeks: Prayer for young people going to the Youth Festival

*God of all, you gently call us each by name.
We give thanks for the young people who are preparing to go to the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Adelaide. Continue to call them, O God, in a world where complexity and busyness can cloud and distort our way.
As they gather from across this land of the Holy Spirit may their hearts yearn for you,
who live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.*

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Pope Francis has announced an Extraordinary Jubilee - Holy Year of Mercy to commence on December 8, 2015, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Pope Francis' Encyclical, Laudato Si

"Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another. Each area is responsible for the care of this family. This will require undertaking a careful inventory of the species which it hosts, with a view to developing programmes and strategies of protection with particular care for safeguarding species heading towards extinction."

Global Catholic Climate Movement

November 2015 is a historical month to take action against climate change. On November 30, 2015 world leaders will inaugurate the Paris Climate Summit (called COP21) and sign a treaty to tackle the climate crisis. And throughout November, we will pray and mobilize as never before, to put into practice the Pope's Laudato Si message. To get started, the Bishops of the world released this "Appeal to the COP21 Negotiating Parties" and our movement responded with this "Call for a Month of Climate Action". Events to participate in: Sign the Catholic Climate Petition -through this petition we urge our political leaders to commit to ambitious climate action and solve this urgent crisis. Petition signatures will be delivered in an event at the Paris Climate Summit; #Pray4cop21 -through the #Pray4cop21 prayer chain we are praying for world leaders to have courage at COP21 and put into practice the Pope's Laudato Si message;

Peter Dwyer	Frank Hogan
Margaret McDonald	Stephen Molloy
Kevin Murphy	Deanna Osman

Ex-Officio Members:

Fr Peter Sherman (Parish Priest)
Fr Peter Dahn (Assistant Priest)
Fr Frank Smith (Exodus)
Stephen Russell (School Principal)

ROLE

Through prayer, reflection, discussion and working in collaboration with the Parish Priest, our Parish Pastoral Council seeks to:

- Review the life and activities of the parish in order to enable the kingdom / reign of God to flourish in the life of the community
Be inspirational in calling forth the gifts and talents of all parishioners to achieve our goals

Listen to and gather information about the hopes, ideas, opinions, needs and concerns of parishioners

Recognise and build on work already done, affirm the contribution of those involved and celebrate the gifts and achievements of all parishioners

The Parish Pastoral Council met on Wednesday 21st October. Agenda items discussed by the PPC included:

FORMATION

Father Peter Dahn and Father Frank Smith led a very thought provoking discussion around Chapters Five and Six of 'Rebuilt'. The discussion focussed on two key questions: - 'How do we invite people to our Sunday celebration?' and secondly 'What are we inviting them to?' The need for our parish to understand and be committed to evangelisation is the integral element in attempting to respond to the first question. Inviting the unchurched and dechurched to 'come home' is one thing but as the authors of Rebuilt state if what they are coming home to is more of the irrelevant experience that drove them away to begin with, we could be doing more harm than good. Much food for thought and the PPC will continue discussion on these two chapters at its next meeting.

PARISH COMMUNICATION STRATEGY

Sue Searls attended the meeting to brief the PPC on the parish web-site. The meeting viewed the OLHC web-site as well as those of a number of parishes across the Diocese. The Council sees the web-site as an essential tool for reaching out to the community who don't regularly attend Mass. A working party of Sue Searls, Andrew Black and Deanna Osman has been formed to further investigate an upgrade of our Parish website. A notice seeking expressions of interest from parishioners who would like to be part of this group will be placed in the newsletter.

PARISH COORDINATOR POSITION

An initial draft of a position description for the parish coordinator role was tabled at the meeting. It was suggested that minute secretary for the PPC and updating of the parish web-site be included in the position description. This role is to support the existing ministries and not replace the volunteers. The initial proposal is for the position to be 16 hours per week. Fr Peter S will discuss the financial aspects of employing a person in this position with the Finance Committee.

PRESBYTERY BUILDING WORKING PARTY

Peter Dwyer updated the PPC on the progress of the Working Party. The final report of the Working Party will be presented to the PPC at the November meeting.

SUPPORT FOR REFUGEES

It was decided to send a letter from the PPC to the Ballarat Diocesan Social Justice Commission asking whether there are any plans in our Diocese for parishes to host refugee families who have fled the violence of the Middle East and are currently seeking refuge in Europe.

DISCERNMENT OF EXECUTIVE POSITIONS

The discernment for these positions was postponed until the November meeting.

If any parishioner has an item they wish to place on the PPC agenda please contact Vin Dillon 53448442 / vindillon@gmail.com at least one week prior to the meeting
