Making Connections: This week, be attentive to the time you spend in waiting—in traffic, in a shop, on the phone, to cross the road. Use these small moments of waiting to focus on and prepare yourself for the coming of Christ at Christmas.

Marriage Tip: "Fidelity to promises is truly a masterpiece of humanity!" – Pope Francis. Pray today for the grace to be faithful to all your promises, especially those made to your spouse and children.

Daily Prayer: Lift from our hearts the weight of self-indulgence, and strengthen us for holiness.

Amid chaos and confusion, let your people stand secure. Raise our heads to greet the redemption that is drawing near, the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints, your Son who was, who is and who is to come.

A Vocation View: Be on the watch! Allow God to lead you in the ways of truth and justice. God is calling you to serve. (Jeremiah 33:14-16).

Pope's Prayer Intentions for November

Universal: Dialogue

That we may be open to personal encounter and dialogue with all, even those whose convictions differ from our own.

Evangalization: Pastors

That pastors of the Church, with profound love for their flocks, may accompany them and enliven their hope.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good

Shepherd to us all, Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

Passing through as pilgrims

Since we pass through this world merely as pilgrims let us keep our sights fixed on the end of the road where our real home lies.

Spurning all wrongdoings, throwing off our half-heartedness, let us strive to please Him who is everywhere present, so that with a clear conscience we can happily pass along the road to the home of our heavenly Father.

From sorrow to joy, from passing things to permanent, from earthly to heavenly, from death's domain to life, where we shall see heavenly things face to face.

We make our prayer through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

First Sunday of Advent

"Be on guard," Jesus warns in today's Gospel, "lest your spirits become bloated with indulgence." Let us heed His warning and follow the advice of St. Paul, conducting ourselves in a way pleasing to God, overflowing with love for one another.

The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the centre of the thanksgiving that is accomplished in the Eucharist.

GIRM #296

Grant them rest

Lord, welcome into your calm and peaceful kingdom those who have departed out of this present life to be with you.

Grant them rest and a place with the spirits of the just; and give them the life that knows no age, the reward that passes not away, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

St Ignatius of Loyola (16th century)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

TO YOU, O LORD, I LIFT MY SOUL

Lord, make me know your ways. Lord, teach me your paths. Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my saviour. R.

The Lord is good and upright. He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path; he teaches his way to the poor. R.

His ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will. The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him; to them he reveals his covenant. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

WREATH:

Be on your guard and stay awake, I will return so stay awake. You know not when so stay awake, until I come again. Jesus, we stand awaiting you. Watching in prayer, proclaiming you. You are the light of all the world. We prayer your Kingdom Come

Christ Be Our Light

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts.
 Shine through the darkness.
 Christ be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Hope

Hope is the hand that the Lord gives us when wind blows against us and obstacles impede our perceiving the goal. Hope is the final resource that the Creator puts at our disposition when we think that all is lost. However, to nourish hope we are in need of trust and of living in the present. Our Parish wants to be the diffuser of hope in the present and the future of each one of you, furnishing faith that widens the mind and heart.

A prayer attributed to Saint Ambrose

Lord Jesus Christ, you are for me medicine when I am sick;
 you are my strength when I need help;
 you are life itself when I fear death;
 you are the way when I long for heaven;
 you are light when all is dark;
 you are my food when I need nourishment.

"Even if it doesn't fix the world, beautification and goodwill gestures inspire and remind people that 'we were made for love'."

- Pope Francis

Our relation to God in Jesus Christ has a past, present and future aspect. Our memory of Jesus, who lived 2000 years ago, would be sterile if it were only that. Our relation to God in Jesus, rooted in the past history of Jesus, is gauged by its vitalising thrust in our present lives and its growth in the future. To live a genuinely Christian life is ongoing growth in faith, love and hope. Its growth inward by faith, outward by love, and forward by hope. Growth in faith flows from the mystery of God in Christ acting in our lives. It is inseparably linked with growth in love for one another. Love is inseparably linked with hope: it deepens the longing and the joy for the future we hope that we already taste in our love.
 - Fr. John Reilly SJ
