St Vincent de Paul Society Jesse Tree Christmas Appeal 2015-Non Perishable Food Items

The Cathedral Parish Conference of the Society will again be distributing hampers this Christmas. Over the years Parishioners have been extremely generous when we have sought your assistance not only at Christmas time but also with our Winter appeal. Last Christmas we were able to provide support to over 100 families and individuals as a result of your generosity.

Jesse Tree symbols will be distributed after each Mass throughout the Season of Advent. We again ask that you support our Jesse Tree Appeal through the donation of non-perishable food items.

Visiting Team

During this past week the Parish Visiting team met and celebrated their year together – thank you to the members of this team for their ministry of visiting and hospitality. Visiting team members are willing to visit parishioners in their homes (with the permission of the parishioner). A certificate of appreciation was presented to Ann McNulty for her service to our Cathedral Parish in a variety of ministries throughout the years.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation in the Year of Mercy

On Thursday December 17th at 7.00 pm, Bishop Paul will lead the Cathedral Parish in our Advent celebration of the Rite of Penance with the 2nd Rite of Reconciliation.

Opening of the Door of Mercy for the Jubilee Year of Mercy

This jubilee calls on Catholics to reflect on the theme of mercy. Holy doors will be opened at Cathedrals around the world starting Sunday. At the opening of the Holy Door of Mercy in Rome this week, Pope Francis said: "You cannot conceive of a true Christian who is not merciful, just as you cannot conceive of God without his Mercy. Mercy is the key word of the Gospel. ... We should not be afraid: We should allow ourselves to be embraced by the mercy of God.

Bishop Paul will open the Door of Mercy in our Cathedral at the 10.30 am Mass. With a sense of gratitude for the gift of the council and for all the gifts the church has received from God, Pope Francis invites us to enter into the Jubilee of Mercy. "With these sentiments of gratitude for everything the Church has received, and with a sense of responsibility for the task that lies ahead, we shall cross the threshold of the Holy Door fully confident that the strength of the Risen Lord, who constantly supports us on our pilgrim way, will sustain us. May the Holy Spirit, who guides the steps of believers in cooperating with the work of salvation wrought by Christ, lead the way and support the People of God so that they may contemplate the face of mercy." (para 4) Welcome to all who are joining us today for the opening of the Door of Mercy, all are invited to the Hall after the 10.30 am Mass to share in a cuppa.

A Hymn of Healing for the Church

Here we stand in silent witness to the Church we love and name.
Hearing please of children's voices, for our part in sin & shame.
Father we have hurt so deeply; trust betrayed, dark secrets kept.

Now the truth cries out in daylight.

Tears of old now freely wept.

Stir in us a deep compassion, firm resolve to heal the past.

Help us understand the darkness, lest again it comes to pass.

Lord we pray for those so wounded, hear the cry of victims' pain.

Help us seek the path of justice.

Finding hope in Jesus' promise,

"I am with you. Do not fear."

Striving through storm and struggle,

Knowing still our God is near.

Loving God, your mercy send, and like the fires that rake this land,

May new life in wondrous colour,

Through the ashes bloom again.

VATICAN CITY — Pope Francis is calling for more emphasis on tenderness, including in the Catholic Church, in a world he said was marked by cruelty and atrocities. He took his Church to task in an interview published Wednesday in Credere, a Catholic magazine reporting on the Holy Year of Mercy, called for by Francis and starting Dec. 8. Francis lamented that the Church itself “falls into the temptation to take a hard line, the temptation to stress only the moral laws.” He wondered “how many people are left outside” the Church by that emphasis. The pope said the world needs a “revolution of tenderness” because, “from here, justice and all the rest derives.” He added: “We are used to bad news, cruel news and to even bigger atrocities, which offend the name and life of God.”
