Happy Australia Day

Australia Day
Mass: In Red Cliffs, we celebrate the Australia Day Mass on the Sunday nearest Australia Day, which means this year, on Sunday, January 24, a fortnight from today. While the readings are those set down for the third Sunday of the Year, Year C, the prayers and hymns are from the Mass for Australia Day.

TAKING COMMUNION TO THE SICK

We are no longer able to obtain the book with prayers etc. used in taking Communion to the sick. So I have done a series of leaflets for Lay Ministers visiting the sick. The prayers etc. are I hope, simple and easy to follow. There are many of these leaflets. It is important that you take a leaflet for the sick person, not just one for yourself to use. Flags the priest.

Saint of the Week – St Vincent, deacon, martyr (January 22)

Born at Huesca, Spain, he became a deacon and served St Valerius at Saragossa until their martyrdom at Valencia during the persecutions under Emperor Diocletian (r. 284-305). St Valerius was exiled, but Vincent was cruelly tortured because he would not surrender the holy books. He converted the warden of the prison and then died. He was honored by Sts Augustine, Pope Leo I, and Prudentius, and is considered the patron saint of vinedressers in some regions of Spain.
