News from the Coordinators (Lin, Joan & Catherine)

We would like to acknowledge and thank Bishop Peter Connors, Frs Shane Mackinlay, Gary Jones and John McKinnon for their support of our parish and the coordinators during this past year. We are grateful that they are so readily available to assist when and where they can. As we are a lay-led community, we are periodically faced with some challenges which we are able to overcome with their spiritual and practical assistance and guidance. There is still a vacancy on the Parish Pastoral Council for a member from the Ballan community. This is an ideal opportunity to contribute in a very positive manner to the overall current and future direction of our parish. It is an extremely rewarding experience, so please give it some thought. If you are interested, you can contact any member of the PPC (members' names are listed on the parish bulletin). As we journey into the new year, the coordinators seek your support with the selection of a member from our parish community at the discernment process scheduled for mid February. Hopefully, you have given this matter careful and prayerful thought – our parish future is in your hands.

YEAR OF MERCY ~ Pope Francis' Message for Young People ~ 6 January 2016

... There are no walls or distances which can prevent the Father's mercy from reaching and embracing us ... I encourage you to take an active part in this celebration and to realise that each of you is a child of God. I would like to invite you, one by one, calling you by name, as Jesus does each day. For you know that your names are written in heaven, in the heart of the Father, that Merciful Heart which is the source of all reconciliation and kindness.

The Jubilee is ... a time when we can discover that life together as brothers and sisters is like a great party, perhaps the most beautiful party we can imagine, the endless party that Jesus has taught us to celebrate by his Spirit. The Jubilee is the party to which Jesus invites us all, without excluding anyone ...

Yours is a time of life which is full of amazing changes. Everything seems possible and impossible all at once. I repeat what I said to some of your friends: 'Remain steadfast in the journey of faith, with firm hope in the Lord. This is the secret of our journey! He gives us the courage to swim against the tide. Pay attention, my young friends: to go against the current; this is good for the heart, but we need courage to swim against the tide. Jesus gives us this courage! ... With Him we can do great things; He will give us the joy of being His disciples, His witnesses. Commit yourselves to great ideals, to the most important things. We Christians were not chosen by the Lord for little things; push onwards toward the highest principles. Stake your lives on noble ideals'.

... Don't ever lose hope! The Lord has a great dream which, with your help, He wants to come true! ... Don't be taken in by the messages of hatred or terror all around us. Instead, make new friends. Give of your time and always show concern for those who ask your help. Be brave and go against the tide; be friends of Jesus, Who is the Prince of Peace."
