News from the Coordinators (Lin, Joan & Catherine)

This Sunday we welcome back to St Brigid's, Fr John McKinnon who will continue in his role of mentoring the coordinators. We look forward to another year of spiritual support and guidance. We also welcome and thank Bridget Sims for her commitment to represent Ballan on the Parish Pastoral Council.

As we begin a new year, it is time to highlight an important event ahead of us. We will be initiating a call for nominations for a new Coordinator to be determined at a discernment process on Sunday, April 10. The challenge of identifying available and gifted candidates should be 'owned' by the whole community. Time is needed for this process. A number of conversations and follow-ups should be engaged in by all. Our model incorporates a rotational pattern with one of our three coordinators being replaced each year. Lin Bowers will complete her appointment at the end of April and Bishop Paul Bird will commission Joan and Catherine along with our new Coordinator in June. We ask that you give these nominations careful and prayerful consideration as our parish future viability is in your hands. Please complete the nomination forms which will be available in each church foyer. Completed forms can be placed in the box provided. If you would like more information regarding a coordinator's role, please talk to either Lin, Joan or Catherine.

Lord God, strengthen your Spirit in them, so they may walk in newness of life.

Like many families in her remote village in Malawi, Doney and her family have often gone months without enough to eat. But with the support of Caritas Australia and local partner CADECOM, the people of Doney's community have learned to harness their strengths. Today they are building new livelihoods, improving health and growing literacy to create paths towards a better future. Please donate to Project Compassion 2016 and help people in remote areas of Malawi harness their strengths and pave
