Scripture Focus

One major theme emerges from today's readings: incomprehensibility of God. We see it in the mysterious divine name, which distinguishes the God of Israel from all others and yet leaves us in the dark as to its meaning. We see it as God communicates with us through inanimate objects and the people in our lives. Finally, we see that God both pardons iniquities and decides to root out unfruitful branches, and we are confused by such inconsistency.

In the midst of this ambiguity we have one sure source of stability – Christ. It is Christ who reveals the nature and meaning of the divine name; it is Christ who intercedes for us before God. Christ, the one who set his face toward Jerusalem, there to suffer and die, is the great messenger through whom God is revealed. He is the one who reveals majesty through the simplicity of a bush; he is the one who judges with the patience of a gardener. However, the limits of the experience and mercy of God in our lives are defined by our own openness. Despite the blessings that we receive in the wildernesses of our lives, it could happen that God is not pleased with us. We must not take God's goodness for granted.

These readings close on a note of caution. Take care! We might be able to rest secure in the knowledge of the love and mercy of God, but these readings tell us that we should not dare to rest passively or complacently.

Project Compassion

Contributions donated towards Project Compassion support people around the world experiencing extreme poverty and injustice, as in Dominic's sharing this week from PNG. It will also help people in marginalized areas of the Pacific who have been affected by cyclone Winston to rebuild their lives for a sustainable future. In these challenging times, our prayers, solidarity and support is important. Please return your envelope/box to help support of these most vulnerable communities.

Parish Stewardship Program 2016

Our Parish Community Values Engagement

Did you know that Masses are prepared several weeks prior to their celebration?

Did you know that there are around 15 people involved in any one celebration of the Eucharist on a regular Sunday here at Wendouree?

Can you work out what roles they have?

What are the ministries that are required to celebrate the Eucharist worthily? A parish will not function or fulfill it's mission without parishioners who give of their time and talent and energy. Our parish has had a wonderful tradition of people who have stepped up and taken on various ministries and roles for the good of the parish. And again we look to renew our volunteer base and offer opportunities for parishioners to be involved and to serve in the name of Jesus.

Will you think about and offer your services? If you do, we promise that we will offer you training and guidance if needed so that you will grow in your confidence with your ministry and enjoy the fruits of service, for those you serve and for the good of your own soul.

Thank you on behalf of the Parish to all who have served generously and give of their time, talents and energy.

Stewardship Program Prayer

*Lord, we thank you for calling us to be your Church.
Through our Baptism we are called to service and to witness.
In the Eucharist we sustain and strengthen that call.
By serving others we follow your example and proclaim our beliefs.
By our Christian generosity we demonstrate our love and care.
Lord, help us always to worship you as you deserve, to grow in faith and service
and to give without counting the cost.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen*
