THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT – 28 February

Today's collect prayer reminds us that fasting, prayer and almsgiving are a 'remedy for sin'. Giving has always been identified with worship both in the Christian and Jewish tradition. In the ancient Christian church it was customary to provide not only the bread and wine for the Eucharist but also food and clothing for those in need in the community. It was the role of deacons to assist the bishop to distribute the gifts brought to Mass to the widows and orphans who depended on the community for survival.

Augustine and the early fathers rebuked members of his community who came empty handed to Eucharist on the Lord's day. He constantly reminded them that the Christ of the altar was identical to the Christ of the poor in the marketplace. One could not encounter the Body at Eucharist without also caring for the Body of Christ living without food, shelter and clothing. One must lead to the other.

This week of Project Compassion we are invited to focus on our close northern neighbours, the people of Papua New Guinea. In a nation overflowing with the beauty of its people and the richness of their cultures, we can embrace our near neighbours as they enhance their capacity to build communities of lasting peace. When we hear stories of goodness and hope we are all nourished by God's living word calling forth in us compassion and generosity.

On this day we welcome our catechumens who begin their final preparations for baptisms with the first of the public scrutinies. We also reflect on the wisdom and generosity of Christ who saw beyond the outward behaviour of the Samaritan woman into a heart capable of compassion and generosity. Not only did this woman change her behaviour but she became an active disciple of the good news, bringing her whole village to Christ.

Saint of the week: St. Anne Line—death 1601. English martyr from Dunmow, Essex. The daughter of William Heigham, she was disowned by him when she married a Catholic, Roger Line. Roger was imprisoned for being a Catholic and was exiled and died in 1594 in Flanders, Belgium. Anne stayed in England where she hid Catholic priests in a London safe house. In this endeavor she aided Jesuit Father John Gerard until her arrest. Anne was hanged in Tyburn on February 27, 1601. Pope Paul VI canonized Anne Line in 1970 as one of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales.

Joke of the week At the Wedding

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "Why is the bride dressed in white?" "Because white is the colour of happiness, and today is the happiest day of her life." The child thought about this for a moment, then said "So why is the groom wearing black?"

Children and the Toilet –

Just a reminder that all children MUST be accompanied by an adult when going to the toilets during Mass. This is for the safety of the children.

Rosters: Apologies to all for any mistakes regarding the Roster. Should you need to change anything, please go directly to Joyce at the Parish Office or email her on ararat@ballarat.catholic.org.au . Thanking you all for your patience.

First Reading Ex 3:1-8. 13-15

Responsorial Psalm Ps 102:1-4. 6-8. 11. R. v.8

- (R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.
1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being, bless his holy name. My soul give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings. (R.)
 2. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion. (R.)
 3. The Lord does deeds of justice, gives judgement for all who are oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses and his deeds to Israel's sons. (R.)
 4. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy. For as the heavens are high above the earth so strong is his love for those who fear him. (R.)

Second Reading I Cor 10:1-6, 10-12

Gospel Acclamation Mt 4:17

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
Repent, says the Lord;
the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel Lk 13:1-9

Prayer of Pope Francis for the Year of Mercy
Lord Jesus Christ,
you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father,
and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.
Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind.

A VOCATION VIEW

"Each Lent should bring us closer to our God. There is no failure, except that of no longer trying. You can still follow Jesus more closely"

St. Anne has been found!

"The Roman Curia has its defects, but it seems to me that people often overemphasize its defects and talk too little about the health of the many religious and laypeople who work there."

24 Hours of Prayer for Mercy

Next Friday March 4th our parish will join Pope Francis' call for 24 hours of Prayer for Mercy. We will begin with Mass on Friday at 6pm at St Mary's Church and conclude with our usual 6pm Mass on Saturday evening. The Parish Council has begun a list of people for whom we might all pray. In the Church foyers are lists of intentions for this 24 hours of prayer. Please take a pen and add more intentions. The list thus far: people in Fiji and Syria, those who resort to violence in the name of religion, victims of clergy abuse, victims of abuse within the family, women abused, people who have died in disgrace, people in detention on Nauru, Manus and other detention centres, people who are deeply poor or alone, sole parents, the homeless, victims of racial abuse, ourselves for our own hardness of heart, prisoners in Hopkins, those who feel imprisoned in their homes, those unjustly deprived of liberty, the sick, everyone who feels in need of God's love.

First Nation Prayer—Native Indian

I give you this one thought to keep— I am with you still – I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow; I am the diamond glints on snow;
I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning rush I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quite birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night
Do not think of me as gone – I am with you still – in each new dawn.

Are you buying Slavery-free Easter Chocolate this year?

Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans (ACRATH) is urging people to eat only slavery-free chocolate, especially this Easter. Did you know that much of the chocolate available in Australia is made using cocoa beans picked by children, many of whom have been enslaved, or forced to work in exploitative conditions?
