Making Connections: Symbols & Images: The first day of the week, Sunday, has a significance for Christians because of the resurrection of Jesus. It is known as the Lord's Day and was set aside from earliest times as the day for the community of believers to gather for the Lord's Supper of Eucharist.

Give witness like the women by telling your story to others this week. Celebrate your birth into new life in Christ.

Marriage Tip: What are some things that make you stressed? Are you prioritizing them too highly? Talk with your spouse about them and seek detachment.

Daily Prayer: This night, O God, is different from all others, for in all other nights the daylight fades as dark descends. But on this night undying Light is kindled, the night turns to day, and the glory of the Lord dawns in the resurrection, and creation is born anew.

A Vocation View: We're no longer nobodies. Jesus rose from the dead. He promises to take us to heaven too. Our Ultimate Vocation: Union with God!

Pope's Prayer Intentions for March

Universal: Families in difficulty
 That families in need may receive the necessary support and that children may grow up in healthy and peaceful environments.

Evangelisation: Persecuted Christians

That those Christians who, on account of their faith, are discriminated against or are being persecuted, may remain strong and faithful to the Gospel, thanks to the incessant prayer of the Church.

May God give you...

For every storm, a rainbow,
 For every tear, a smile,
 For every care, a promise,
 And a blessing in each trial.
 For every problem life sends,
 A faithful friend to share,
 For every sigh, a sweet song,
 And an answer for each prayer.
 - An Irish Prayer

The Face of Mercy
 – Pope Francis

Jesus Christ is the face of the Father's mercy. These words might well sum up the mystery of the Christian faith. Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth, reaching its culmination in him.

At times we are called to gaze even more attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effecting sign of the Father's action in our lives.

"Patient and merciful." These words often go together in the Old Testament to describe God's nature. His being merciful is concretely demonstrated in his many actions throughout the history of salvation where his goodness prevails over punishment and destruction.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

Alleluia, Alleluia

Easter is the name Christians give to the Sunday that celebrates Jesus' resurrection. East is the direction where the sun rises each morning. The word Easter means dawn, the awakening of a new day. Mary Magdalene discovers Jesus' tomb empty at dawn. God creates a promise of life beyond death and summons us to a future beyond human imagination, to be co-workers of a new life with him. In 'The Wreck of the Deutschland' Gerard Manly Hopkins shares a profound Easter prayer.

Let him easter in us
 Be a dayspring to the dimness of us
 Be a crimson-cresseted east.

"To be merciful is to be kind, to be open, to be trusting, to be a friend. Mercy, Shakespeare writes, "is twice blest. It blesseth him that gives and him that takes." It is when we show mercy that we may be closest to God."

- Joan Chittister OSB

Mystery Of Faith

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

"We are God's work of art, created in Christ Jesus to live the good life as from the beginning he meant us to live it"

- Ephesians 2:10

Easter Sunday is a festival day of abundance, where fasting and almsgiving gives way to feasting and relaxation with family and friends. As we sit at our tables let us continue to be mindful of those without food this day. Those whose lives we have helped a little through our support of Project Compassion. We continue to remain vigilant in our care for those with whom we stand in solidarity to end poverty, promote justice and uphold dignity. In this way, Christ's resurrection takes root throughout our world.

For our community: That as we bask in the glory of the resurrection we may remember those who need our support to live in freedom and dignity. We pray to the Lord

29 March—Neighbour Day

Neighbour Day is Australia's annual celebration of community, bringing together the people next door, across the street or on the next farm for a beer, a Barbie or just a cuppa.

Held on the last Sunday in March every year, it's the perfect day to say thanks for being a great neighbor and for being there when I needed you most...

The principal aim of Neighbour Day is to build better relationships with the people who live around us, especially the elderly and vulnerable. Neighbours are important because good relationships with others can and do change communities. Social connection also makes us feel better as it helps prevent loneliness, isolation and depression.

Neighbour Day brings together like-minded people, resources, and organizations to grow stronger, well connected communities.

Working with neighbourhoods across Australia we aim to grow this ethos beyond a single day—to every day of the year.

For more information: www.neighbourday.org

The Neighbour Day website has information about how we can celebrate Neighbour Day in our communities:

Since the beginning of 2014, Relationships Australia has taken responsibility for Neighbour Day.

'On the third day, the friends of Christ, coming at daybreak to the place, found the grave empty, and the stone rolled away. In varying ways they realised the new wonder; but even they hardly realised that the world had died in the night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener God walking again in the garden, in the cool, not of the evening, but of the dawn.' - G.K. Easter

In the second reading today, St Paul reminds the Colossians that they have been raised with Christ, exhorting them to "think about the things above rather than the things of earth." We, too, have been raised with Christ. Let us rejoice and be glad!
