Responsorial Psalm

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me

and have not let my enemies
rejoice over me.

O Lord, you have raised my soul
from the dead,

restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,

give thanks to his holy name.

His anger lasts but a moment;
his favour through life.

At night there are tears, but joy
comes with dawn. (R)

The Lord listened and had pity.

The Lord came to my help.

For me you have changed my mourning into dancing;

O Lord my God, I will thank you
for ever. (R)

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
Alleluia, Alleluia Alleluia!

Recent Deaths:

Bishop Ronald Mulkearns

Anniversaries:

Yolande Groenewegen,
Peter Carey

Death of Bishop Mulkearns.

Bishop Mulkearns was the bishop of Ballarat from 1971 till 1977.

Those who knew him personally will remember a man who was dedicated in his service over those years and, indeed, over the sixty years he served as a priest. At the same time, Bishop Mulkearns himself acknowledged that he had made some tragic mistakes during his time as bishop. He expressed his sorrow for these mistakes in the evidence he gave to the Royal Commission in February.

Please remember the bishop in your prayers. May he rest in peace.

Project Compassion

Thank you to those who have donated towards the Caritas Australia's annual appeal, Project Compassion. Your gift, both prayer and financial giving, ensures the world's poorest and marginalized communities are supported through Caritas Australia's transforming and self-sustaining programs. If you have not already donated and wish to do so, could you please place your gift in a clearly marked envelope and place it on the collection plate next week so that the appeal can be finalised and donations forwarded to Caritas Australia.

Third Sunday of Easter

There are times when we feel that we have worked for nothing, that life does not seem to make much sense.

How good it would be to hope again to feel that somehow, somewhere, life is being lived in joy, life is being recreated.

After the resurrection of Jesus the apostles and disciples understood things differently because their experience of Jesus was different. No longer physically present to them Jesus was now present in an even more powerful way. Their transformation was immediate. Today's gospel story insists that it is Jesus who makes sense of life and gives us hope. The invitation, "Come and have breakfast," is an invitation to return to life with a new sense of purpose.

REFLECTION

Today we concentrate on the different ways that the witness of the community of faith manifests the Lord – the apostolic witness of leadership and service that is accomplished by the various ministries within the church. While today's gospel singles out Peter as a leader within the community, in no way does this mean that such providential care for the church is the sole responsibility of authorised leaders. Rather, it is the responsibility of all the baptised. In their teaching and preaching, the apostles moved from one understanding of God's presence and activity in the midst of the people to another. This new understanding had the death and resurrection of Jesus at its core. The light of the resurrection illumined their former religious convictions and aspirations, and they were undeterred in their commitment to spread this good news, this new word, this transforming light.

A martyr is a witness, one who is so committed, that that person is willing to suffer any consequence, even death, in order to be faithful. The apostles rejoiced that they had been found worthy of ill-treatment for the sake of the name of Jesus.

The Lamb who is exalted is the one who was slain, and Peter is told that, like his master, he will pay for his commitment with his life. Even the psalm alludes to the suffering that must be endured by those who have chosen to be faithful. This kind of steadfastness has always been a persuasive witness.
