Sunday 17th April Fourth Sunday of Easter

St Patrick's Primary School Nhill

St Patrick's Day—Students and staff enjoyed celebrating the feast day of St Patrick.

Students and staff dressed in green and had "green food" - jelly slice and frogs in ponds for lunch. We would like to thank Father Neville for celebrating Mass with us and reminding us that as a young man St. Patrick was enslaved and that during this time he turned to God.

After escaping his captors Patrick became a priest and ministered to the people of Ireland.

Tabloid Sports Day— Senior students have been organising a Tabloid Sport's afternoon. They are utilising the skills they have learnt throughout the term's Inquiry unit to work co-operatively and respectfully with each other to organise a fun sport's afternoon for everyone.

Chinese— Our students have been busy learning about the Chinese New Year and Dragon Boat races. They have made Chinese lantern's and Dragon boat replicas . They are certainly enjoying Chinese this year.

Message from Fr Neville

Fr Neville sends his regards and thanks everyone for their support and prayers. His mother is home with personal care from home nurses.

She is slowing down day by day. Please continue to keep her in your prayers.

Time Change

There is a small change for information to be added into the bulletin. Previously it was 11.00am Thursday, it has now been changed to Wednesday night. Thank you.

Reflection

The deepest wound of all is that which affects the heart. The feeling that one has not been loved, that one is not precious to anyone. Many people today are wounded at heart. Each of us can do something to heal their wound's.

We have hands that can make things, and minds that can understand things. But above all, we have hearts that can give life. We are not sterile people.

We can give life to people who are inwardly broken. We can show them that they are important, and so bring life to them.

Today, Good Shepherd Sunday, is also vocations Sunday. But all vocations are vocations to love.

Prayer for Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father.

And have told us that whoever see's you, see's him'

Show us your face and we shall be saved.

You are the visible face of the Invisible Father, of the God who manifests his Power above all by forgiveness and mercy.

Send your spirit and consecrate every one of us with the Spirits anointing so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord.

And your church, with renewed enthusiasm , may bring good news to the poor.

We ask this of you, Lord Jesus through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy

You who live and reign with the Father And the Holy spirit for ever and ever.

Amen.
