11th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Sunday 12th June 2016

Scripture Reflection by © Mary Coloe

All the Gospels have the story of a woman who anoints Jesus, but each evangelist tells the story in a different way. Mark, Matthew and John have this narrative introducing the last week of Jesus' life and present it as a highly symbolic action. Only Luke suggests that the unnamed woman is a sinner.

The parable Jesus tells helps to interpret the meaning of her action. His parable makes it clear that the action of the woman is about love. She has experienced being loved, and being forgiven. The debtor who owed more is the one who loves the master more when the debts are pardoned. The woman's action is in response to knowing her sins have been forgiven. Jesus says, 'Her sins must have been forgiven her.' We do not see the act of forgiveness in the narrative – this must have occurred on an earlier occasion – here we see her grateful, loving response. Christians ought to be the most joyful and grateful of all people, for we believe that in Jesus sin has been forgiven – past tense. Each of us can say, 'My sins have been forgiven.' Fear has no place in our lives with the knowledge that God loves us and invites us to participate in this love. If only we could believe this! Paul does! The woman does – hence her loving response to Jesus. She becomes a model of Christian discipleship, for we are all sinners who know the gracious forgiveness of God. All our living is grateful response to a God who loves us first.

Pope Francis' Prayer for the Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

RCIA in our Parish – accompanying adults becoming Catholic

Each year we have a number of people of various ages and backgrounds who approach us to become fully initiated members of the Catholic faith. This process is the responsibility of the entire faith community which is co-ordinated by a small team of parish members. This ministry is an extremely life giving experience as we journey with our Inquirers through the various stages of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

There are a variety of roles involved throughout the process. This we already have approximately ten Inquirers and we invite parishioners to be part of the process. You may see yourself as a sponsor, a catechist, secretarial resource person, a co-ordinating team member or someone offering hospitality and friendship; if so do let us know.

We also seek to inform anyone interested in becoming an Inquirer to make contact with Jacinta in the Parish Office prior to our first Inquiry night next Wednesday, June 15th at 7.00pm in St Patrick's new Hall.

If you have any queries or would like clarification of any of the roles or wish to become involved in any way, please contact Jacinta in the Parish Office or our RCIA co-ordinator, Kay Curran on 53324174 or 0411 866 532.
