St Marys School Report

Wow, wow, wow. I actually cannot find the words to describe this situation..... Please come into our school via the front door, look up to your right and let us know what you think. This is the result of two large banners, Year of Mercy, 96 pieces of calico, mathematical thinking by Lentils (grades 5 and 6), Catholic Education Week celebrations and a final product of which we are immediately proud. My sincere thanks to children, staff, visiting children and staff from Sea Lake, Nhill and Hopetoun. We need to give a special mention to Bron Overall who spent many hours sewing these calico pieces together. This is truly amazing work. The ribbons which are placed throughout this display are the ribbons that were removed from the school fence. We have added these to this work as a reminder to all that we, at St Mary's, are providing a safe school for all who learn and work here.

Sympathy

On behalf of our school community we express our sympathy to Wendy, Matt and Jess Lang and families on the passing of Wendy's mother. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.

 [Fr Justin's mother]

Fr Neville received our card and thoughts and responded by email. This is a copy of his response.
 "Thank you very much for your prayers, concern and support at this difficult time. I really appreciate your thoughts and support. Please extend my regards to everyone at St. Pat's, Nhill.
 Regarding Mum, I spoke to the doctor (palliative care) today. He told me that (this time) mum is not going to return home from the hospital. He is going to transfer mum from the ward to his palliative care unit. It is a waiting game from now on. How long is a big question? I asked him to say about mum's health condition and he told me a few weeks."

Prayer for Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father.
 And have told us that whoever see's you, see's him'
 Show us your face and we shall be saved.
 You are the visible face of the Invisible Father, of the God who manifests his Power above all by forgiveness and mercy.
 Let the Church be your visible face in the world.
 Send your spirit and consecrate every one of us with the Spirits anointing so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord.
 And your church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor.
 We ask this of you, Lord Jesus through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy
 You who live and reign with the Father And the Holy spirit for ever and ever. AMEN

End of Financial Year:
 This is a friendly reminder to our Annual givers that the end of the financial year is drawing near. Parish Council sincerely thanks all parishioners for their continuing financial support towards the Parish.
Congratulations to Fred Webb who celebrated his 90th Birthday this week. We hope he had a wonderful day last weekend with his family and friends.
