Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday

Responsorial Psalm (R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R.)

2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among
men. (R.)

3. He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry
-shod.

Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. (R.)

4. Come and hear, all who fear
God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. (R.)

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

(You are reminded that Gospel Acclamation, if not sung, is to be omitted)

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday – July 3, 2016

“Let the earth cry out to God with joy and happiness for all.”

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday is a day where the Catholic Church comes together to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts that Australia's first people bring to the Catholic Church.

Lay Pastoral Ministry Program offers the opportunity for lay workers to study individual subjects or to undertake a six subject Certificate course. More information contact Amanda Smith 53377125 or 0427 748867

menAlive Men’s Weekend – Hamilton Parish

Hamilton Parish will host a menAlive Men’s Weekend on July 30 & 31, 2016. The purpose of menALIVE is to bring men together, to renew their faith in God, and to encourage them to become an active force within the Church. The weekend commences Saturday at 8.30am and concludes at 1.30pm on Sunday. Billed accommodation will be available. More information can be found on the diocesan website www.ballarat.catholic.org.au or www.stmaryshamilton.org.au or phone John Hockey, 0439319823.

Living the gospel

Discipleship

Today's gospel passage immediately follows the passage used last week that spelt out the difficulties of discipleship. Having explained how hard it is to be a disciple, Jesus sends his followers out to 'have a go' at being a disciple. When they come back successful he tells them not to be boastful or proud at their achievements but rather to be happy that their "names are written in heaven". In other words, anything they accomplished was because they were 'known' by God and that God was working through them. Disciples make themselves 'known' to God and God works through them to accomplish great things!

A neglected corner of St John of God Hospital Warrnambool has been given a facelift with help from local school pupils. Students from primary schools across Warrnambool and further afield contributed artwork to the hospital's oncology garden, brightening the outlook for cancer patients. Caregivers have replanted the garden, paid for through fundraising, as part of the hospital's Mission Mentoring project participants

A Leaving Collection will be taken up next weekend for the Holy Father. This collection is in support of the Pope's pastoral care for people throughout the world.

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate
In Jewish tradition 'Satan' is the name given to the evil spirit who accuses and prosecutes human beings before God, demanding the strongest penalties, unmitigated by Mercy. Jesus had a vision in which he saw 'Satan fall like lightning from Heaven'. Who takes Satan's place? The answer is the 'Paraclete', a Greek word for an Advocate. This is one of the roles of the Holy Spirit who pleads on our behalf for Mercy which, as Shakespeare put it, then falls on us 'as the gentle rain from Heaven'. As disciples, we have to imitate the Paraclete, not Satan. We have to temper our drive to see 'the punishment fit the crime'. How often do we relish seeing a person squirm with no offer of a way out, no hint of mercy or forgiveness so that he or she can draw breath, undo some of the damage done, and get back on track to a better life? We might pause for a moment to thank God that our names are not being listed by Satan in an indictment but rather, through the Holy Spirit, are being entered in the Book of the Saved so that we might 'Rejoice, for your names are written in Heaven'.
