Sunday Bulletin

You will notice a new format with our bulletins this week. We will take the opportunity from now on to make an effort to answer the responses as per the bulletin. We will no longer require the cards from the end of the seat. Thank you.

Fr Neville: Please keep Fr Neville and his Mum and family in your prayers.

Reflection:

Living our life professing the faith that we reaffirmed at Easter is not easy. We are not alone in living out the truth that we proclaim because here we have our sights set on the light that guides us to that truth. Unaccompanied we could do nothing that would enable us to be witnesses to the faith that we profess. Through the goodness of God, we are given the grace to make every effort to eliminate those things in our lives that would cause us to not give praise, honor, and glory to the name of Christ. We are constantly moving on the path that leads to eternal life. We move on that path accompanied by our God and by all who profess their faith in him. God is ever with us to support, encourage, enliven, and pull us back when we wander off the path which brings us to eternal life. [acknowledgement to the davenportdiocese.org.]

Prayer for Year of Mercy
 Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father.
 And have told us that whoever see's you, see's him'
 Show us your face and we shall be saved.
 You are the visible face of the Invisible Father, of the God who manifests his Power above all by forgiveness and mercy;
 Let the church be your visible face in the world
 Send your spirit and consecrate every one of us with the Spirits anointing so that the Jubilee of Mercy
 may be a year of grace from the Lord.
 And your church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor.
 We ask this of you, Lord Jesus through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy
 You who live and reign with the Father And the Holy spirit for ever and ever.
Amen.
