WEEKDAY SCRIPTURES WHILE I'M AWAY

Usually, when I'm absent from the parishes, Michael Duck leads the reading of the Scriptures for the Day, in the Church at 9.30 am. However, Michael is himself going to be away over the next fortnight. So, while I'm away this time there will be no weekday liturgy at all in the parish.

A note in this connection: In my two previous parishes, when the priest was absent on a weekday, the weekday Liturgy would include receiving Holy Communion as well as reading the scriptures. PJF

FR FLAGS' AWAY

On Monday I fly to Sydney to be with my twin sister for our 80th birthday. After that, I will be participating in the bi-ennial conference of the National Council of Priests, to be held this year in St. Kilda. I will be returning here Friday afternoon, July 29. PJF

I've learned.... that being kind is more important than being right.

May your troubles be less,
may your blessings be more, and may nothing but happiness come through your door .
