GOSPEL REFLECTION

The story of Martha and Mary has been interpreted fairly consistently over the centuries. Mary's silent contemplative pose at the feet of Jesus is generally affirmed while Martha's action-oriented focus is seen as a less desirable Christian stance. To be a "Mary" is to "choose the better part". To be a "Martha" is to be "anxious and distracted about many things".

In recent times, some interpreters have re-evaluated this reading of the Martha-Mary story. They have drawn attention to the many voices that inform the gospels and have suggested that this particular text reflects a struggle in early Church communities over the role of women in leadership and ministry. One voice in the text comes from those who want to downplay the initiative of women like Martha and to affirm the silence of women like Mary. The same voice functions to pit the two women over against each other and to cast Jesus in the role of arbiter between them, approving Mary's choice over against Martha's. This voice has had the effect of creating a false dichotomy and of reducing the women to exemplars of active ministry on the one hand and of quiet contemplation on the other. In other words, the judgment of Luke's Jesus reflects the views of a certain group in Luke's house churches rather than the words of Jesus of Nazareth.

A more women-friendly voice in the text presents Martha as the householder who welcomes or receives Jesus into her household church. This is possibly the voice of a circle of women disciples who preserved memories of women like Martha and Mary in less divisive ways. For these women, Martha is a generous host who uses her resources for the sake of the community. She welcomes those who share faith in Jesus, among them her sister Mary. The designation "sister" does not necessarily denote blood relationship. Mary may be one among many sisters and brothers in faith who gather to hear the teaching of Jesus. According to the narrator, Martha is "pulled in every direction" (periespato) by many ministerial tasks (peri pollēn diaconian), and most leaders can sympathise with her in this. There is no indication in this description that she is distracted. This is in contrast with the subsequent evaluative comments of the Lukan Jesus: coming from the lips of Jesus, the expression "anxious and troubled by many things" services a negative interpretation of Martha's leadership.

This story is problematic in many ways. It forms part of a broader Lukan canvas where women provide the model for leadership but are more often than not excluded from its exercise. This is in stark contrast with the ways that women are presented elsewhere in the gospels, especially in John.

UPDATE ON FR MICHAEL'S TRAVELS

Tomorrow (Thursday 14th of July) we are in Brienne Le Chateau, a place where Napoleon spent time in Military School. Because it's Basile Day, France's National Day, I expect there will be plenty on there throughout the day. We have had some lovely weather once again, though it did rain over the last 4ks this morning. On the road most days by 5:30am or 6:00am at the latest. This morning we were away by a bit after 5:00am. At present it is light by 5:30am and still light at 10:00pm. Thank God the French have good window shutters to keep the light out in the evening. The greatest disappointment is that so many Churches are locked. France seems to have become a very secular country, despite it's rich Catholic/Christian heritage. I am still in awe of the history, both secular and religious, as we wander from village to village. The marks of both World Wars are also very obvious. Some places are very post WWII in appearance, despite the fact that some buildings have survived.

We have lit a number of candles for our Parishes, family members and friends along the way. However, we haven't been able to find where you are supposed to leave the money on most occasions. We suppose our prayers will be heard all the same. Hope all is well. I get the impression I should forget about Geelong for the rest of the season! Dennis keeps me informed.

Fr Michael

NEWS FROM ST JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

The College hopes that everyone had a relaxing, fun and safe couple of weeks break from school. This week the College welcomed back the Year 12 students after their Retreat and Years 9 - 11 after their examinations, during the final week of Term 2. Despite the chilly weather of Anglesea students enjoyed the break from school and their studies. We hope they have come back with a renewed energy to finish off their final year of education at the College. A special thanks to Fr Damian for joining our Year 12 students in Anglesea.

All staff had a Professional Development Day covering the new school policies and curriculum development on Monday. Students began their new subjects on Tuesday. We wish both staff and students an enjoyable and engaging educational experience for Semester Two.

NEWS FROM OUR PRIMARY SCHOOL

SACRED HEART PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear School Families and Friends,

Welcome back! We trust you had a restful break and are all set for another busy and enjoyable term.

Yesterday our staff enjoyed a day of Professional Learning with Allan Hutchison, Senior Psychologist with the CEOB. Mr Benson Steere has now officially joined our staff. Benson will be teaching in Narooma for the remainder of this year and we extend a warm welcome to him and trust that he will find Sacred Heart a wonderful place to be in.

We also have a number of new students and their families joining our community this term: Noah Campbell (Cooinda), Jesse Campbell (Nangare), Tasman Ogden (Illawarra), Henry Ogden (Eumeralla) and Jak Matotek (Kyema). We are very happy to have them here and welcome them also.

This morning we began our NAIDOC Week celebrations with an Acknowledgement of Country ceremony. We are excited about our NAIDOC Week Mass on Thursday and the many other activities planned by Mrs Zalec, along with her team of student helpers and members of the local indigenous community. We are sure the week will not only be fun but will lead us all to a greater understanding and appreciation of the unique culture of our Aboriginal people. Have a great week,

Andrea Welsh—Deputy Principal

ST PAUL'S PRIMARY SCHOOL

Welcome back for the beginning of Term 3. I hope everyone had an enjoyable break over the school holidays. For those of you who managed to get away for a few days I hope it was somewhere nice and warm.

A special welcome to Lucas Delacoeur, Charlene and Eddy Lion & Sarah Richmond who are joining our St Paul's school community. Lucas will be in Grade 5 and comes from Sacred Heart Primary in Broken Hill. Charlene and Eddy are from Creswick Primary near Ballarat and will be in Foundation and Year Two, Sarah is in Gr 1. On behalf of our school community I wish them and their families a very warm welcome to St Paul's and hope they enjoy their time with us.

Our Mini Olympics Sports Carnival was held at the Aero Ovals on Thursday. We are very proud of all our children who tried their best and displayed great sportsmanship during their events.

The Gr 3 children had the opportunity to attend a session at the Mildura Library for an Author/ Illustrator (Ursula Dubosarsky & Andrew Joyner) visit. We were very fortunate to have experienced children's authors and illustrators in town sharing their knowledge and love of writing with our children.

The date for the school Ball has been finalised for Friday October 21st at Willow and Ivie. Put the date in your calendar. There will be more updates throughout the term.

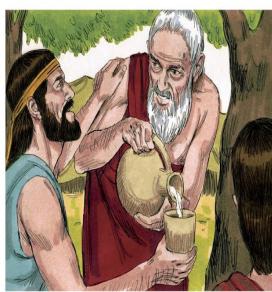

Enrolments for 2017 are still open for those families who have children starting school next year. Don't forget to come in and book an enrolment interview. Our Flying Start program kicked off on Friday. The children had a wonderful time participating in some fun activities with one of our experienced prep teachers. It is completely free and open to any child currently attending 4 yr old kinder. If you have any friends who have not decided where to send their children, tell them about the program. It is absolutely free and no obligation to attend our school afterwards.

As always, Keep the Faith
