Lay Pastoral Ministry Program Update - new study cycle in August

A new online study cycle is commencing towards the end of August as part of the Lay Pastoral Ministry Program that the Ballarat Diocese has initiated. This program offers opportunities for formation, study, certification and support for lay workers, both employees and volunteers, in the diocese. It includes on-line study with a wide range of subjects presented as short courses – you can do one subject or many. Subjects are offered six times a year and you can start at whichever time suits you. If you are interested, please check out the details on the diocesan website (link from bottom of front page), then contact Amanda Smith, ph. 5337 7125 or email

St Vincent de Paul Society

A significant number of our clients have expressed a desire for assistance with household budgeting. To address this need we are planning to offer sessions at our Relief centre at O'Collins Hall on Tuesdays. Clients would meet by appointment with two volunteers. Please note this is not financial planning and all volunteers would be provided with training via the program, "Where Did All The Money Go?" designed to give volunteers knowledge of what practical assistance can be offered to people living on low incomes. If you feel that you would be interested in being part of this new and exciting initiative you are invited to an information session at O'Collins Hall Dawson St on Wednesday 10th August 1.00pm. For further information - Mary McAloon 0419 897 345
