Sunday 14th August Twentieth Sunday Of the Year

FOR MY FLESH
IS THE TRUE FOOD and MY BLOOD IS
THE TRUE DRINK

St Patricks School, Nhill

Mr Huff Performance—On Monday 1st August, our students had the privilege of watching a performance of Mr Huff, shortlisted for this years CBCA Book of the Year. Early Childhood. Our students were entranced with this production which explained how a young boy gets in a huff (bad mood) and how it takes over his day. Finally he comes to the realisation that there are things he can do to minimise how bad he feels and that it is up to him to stop his 'huff' taking over his day. A very professional and worthwhile production that contained a message for everyone.

Tree planting— Last Sunday (7 August) we had 51 members of the school and parish community come together to plant trees and shrubs at the back of the oval and behind the church. Initially, we wanted to create a windbreak to reduce the damage to our shade sails but this idea quickly grew to include the concept of creating an outdoor classroom where our students can learn about the environment and biodiversity throughout their years at St Pat's. A huge thank you to everyone involved, especially, Jamie Donnell who coordinated the event in conjunction with Jonathon Stark from Hindmarsh Landcare Network. Now to keep them alive and watch them grow.

Athletics' Carnival at Warracknabeal— Parishioners and school families are invited to Join St. Patrick's and St Mary's Schools at Anzac Park Warracknabeal on Thursday 25th August for the second annual Athletics Carnival. Our students are really looking forward to catching up with their St Marys friends.

Welcome

We welcome Fr Rupert Bowd to our Parish who will be celebrating Mass with us for this and next weekend.

Recent Deaths

Fr Brendan Davey died at Nazareth House last Tuesday morning. We remember him in prayerful hope of the resurrection and pray for his family and friends and all who have known Brendan over his life. We give thanks for his years of service as a priest of the Diocese of Ballarat since his ordination to the priesthood at St Patrick's Cathedral Ballarat on July 23rd 1961. Fr Brendan retired from the Parish of Ararat in 2014 after many years of ministry there and has been a resident of Nazareth House Ballarat for the past two years.

His funeral arrangements are as follows: Vigil Prayers at 7.00 pm on Tuesday August 16th at St Patrick's Cathedral Ballarat. Funeral Mass at 11.00 am Wednesday August 17th at Immaculate Conception Church Ararat with the committal to follow at the Ararat Cemetery.

Bishop Paul Bird's Sister, Josie passed away in Gosford yesterday. We will remember Josie and Bishop Paul and his family in our prayers and thoughts this week.

Friday, August 19: Ecumenical Services at Iona & Avonlea from 10.15a.m. Parishioners are most welcome to attend these services.

Reflection

A swamp may look nice on the surface
But it's depths are full of rotten things.
Peace that is based on injustices is like that.
It is a false peace and Jesus came to disrupt it.
But then there is a true peace.
A peace in which all of God's children have their basic rights respected.
And are able to live in freedom and dignity.
This is the peace Jesus came to bring.
But peace like this doesn't happen; it has to be made.
Sometimes the peacemakers will be branded troublemakers.
But Jesus had another name for them: he called them 'children of God'.
