Daily Prayer: You hear, O God, the prayer of those whose faith is the size of a mustard seed. ### Pope's Prayer Intentions for September

Universal: Centrality of the Human Person

That each may contribute to the common good and to the building of a better society that places the human person at the centre.

Evangelization: Mission to Evangelize

That by participating in the Sacraments and meditating on Scripture, Christians may become more aware of their mission to evangelize.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all. Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

"Christian Initiation incorporates us into Christ and forms us into God's people. In Baptism, God adopts us as children and makes us a new creation through water and the Holy Spirit. As we are signed with the gift of the Spirit in Confirmation, God brings us to the full stature of the Lord Jesus to continue his mission in the world. At the table of the Eucharist, we are fed on the sacrament of Christ's body and blood, and, with the whole Church, take part in the saving offering of Christ on the cross. In Sunday Mass, those who have been initiated are continually formed by the word of God and affirmed in their belonging to the Church, the Body of Christ."

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The sin of the rich man in today's parable was not that he was rich, but that he failed to share his wealth with the beggar at his gate. He knew Lazarus, perhaps walked by him every time he came in or out, but did nothing to relieve his suffering. Is there a Lazarus in my life? What am I doing to help?

Mercy From the Heart of God

(Lyrics—Monica O'Brien)
(Music—Gina Ogitvie)

1. God of Mercy and compassion
Draw us deeply to your heart
Lead us to a place of healing
Where we'll never be apart.
2. Let forgiveness be our passion
Reaching out with hands of peace.
Turning from Chains that bind us
Finding freedom and release.

CHORUS

*Mercy ever flowing freely given
Mercy, mercy from the heart of God.*

3. May our mission be of mercy
Welcome all without reserve
As one heart we stand for justice
With compassion, called to serve.

Mystery Of Faith

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

Hospitality is Everyone's Responsibility

When we welcome visitors into our home, whether family, friends or strangers, we normally tidy the house, greet guests at the door, provide enough food and drink for everyone and make sure that all are comfortable and included in the conversation. This hospitable behavior applies also to the worshipping community.

Even in those parishes which have designated ministers of hospitality, everyone at Mass has a ministry of welcome and warmth to the community and is called to 'be present' to others as fellow members of the Body of Christ.

This isn't just a 'feel good' fad or part of some trendy push to be inclusive. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal doesn't pull any punches about our attitude towards others at Mass. It clearly calls on the faithful to share charity toward all who share with them in the celebration. They therefore are to shun any appearance of individualism or division, keeping before their mind that they are all brothers and sisters to each other. They should become one body.....There is a beautiful expression of this unity when the faithful maintain uniformity in their actions and in standing, sitting or kneeling.

In other words, liturgy is not a time for 'doing my own thing' or 'my time with God'. We're all in this together!

It is up to each one of us to 'pay attention' to those who are with us at Mass and to make everyone welcome. (E. Harrington)

Summary: Social Justice Statement 2016–2017

A Place at the Table: Social justice in an aging society

The number of Australians aged 65 and over will more than double by the middle of the century. This has been rightly described as 'the great success story of human development'. Increasing numbers of older people have an excellent chance of enjoying good health and an active life for many years.

The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2016-2017 is titled 'A Place at the Table: Social justice in an aging society'. It celebrates the value, dignity and significant contributions of older people to the life of the community. In solidarity with all generations, older people have a rightful place in the heart of community life. The Bishops confront the utilitarianism in our society that values people only for what they produce and contribute economically and that, at worst, can regard older people as burdensome or dispensable.

In a society in which older people are being asked to work beyond the traditional retirement age, the bishops call for the benefits of work to be shared equitably. We must be especially aware of the needs of those who enter retirement in poverty or are particularly vulnerable to economic hardship, social isolation or exploitation.

The Bishops consider the circumstances of those who are approaching the end of their lives and warn of the loneliness, ageism and abuse that older people can experience. In particular, the Bishops warn about implications of the current community debate on euthanasia.

The Bishops call for communities of mercy and love—where people reach out and minister to vulnerable older people, where bonds between generations are built up, and where no one is cast as being a burden or as rivals to younger generations.
