Social Justice Group

Boy Myers from St Joseph's Social Justice Group is inviting interested people to join the group which is in the process of being re-established. The role of the Social Justice Group is to assist and support future social justice activities undertaken by various groups or individuals. The Group plans to do this by providing opportunities to explore the nonviolence of Jesus, for example, through group discussions of Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si' or through participating in courses and engaging in the spirituality and practice of Non-violence. All members of church groups are welcome to be part of the Social Justice Group. Please let Bob know if you are willing to become involved; bobmyers@aapt.net.au

Secondhand Books

St John of God Auxiliary members would like to sell your secondhand books to raise funds for the hospital. Used books may be bought to the Church and left in the foyer for the next couple of weeks.
