MESSAGE FROM SR. BARBARA'S FAMILY. Dear parishoners, It's now a week since we were in Maryborough to join with you all at Barbara's funeral. We would like to thank you for being wonderful friends to Barbara during her 26 years living in Maryborough. She loved the town, its people and the surrounding region and was happiest sharing her life with you all. In particular we want to express our deepest thanks for helping Barbara remain in Maryborough as long as she did. This was only possible by your amazing care, compassion and love for Barbara. Barbara's funeral was a wonderful occasion full of love, sadness in her death but rejoicing in her amazing attitude and reminiscing with laughter and tears. A special thank you to all who assisted with the organisation of Barbara's funeral and for the wonderful catering, it was country hospitality at its best. Kind regards Peter and Majella May, Terry and Chris May and their families.
