Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

1. I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help?
My help shall come from the Lord
who made heaven and earth. (R.)

2. May he never allow you to stumble!
Let him sleep not, your guard.
No, he sleeps not nor slumbers,
Israel's guard. (R.)

3. The Lord is your guard and your shade;
at your right side he stands.
By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night. (R.)

4. The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming
both now and for ever. (R.)

Prayer and Hangin' Out

Pray always?

Some scholars translate this as praying without ceasing. Sounds pretty impossible. But maybe it depends on how you look at it.

Here's how I pictured prayer when I was young. Kneeling at church. Reciting memorised prayers. Lying in bed, asking for help on a test or with a friend. Prayer took time set aside. So you could never pray always, unless you never ate, studied, or worked.

Over the years I've come to see God as my friend, a constant companion, always there to support and guide me. So my understanding of prayer has changed. I still think it's important to set aside special time for prayer; but I've learned that I don't need to wait for those times. God's hangin' out with me all day long.

And that's pretty critical for me. Because several times each day I need divine help. It happens like this. Here's that person who irritates me. God, give me patience. Here's someone asking for help. God, what do I do? I feel like an idiot. God, help me believe in myself. What a beautiful day. God, help me be grateful.

God surrounds us each moment of our lives. Jesus, in this week's Gospel, told his disciples to recognise that and rejoice. We all want close friends willing to hang out with us. Some of us have them. Some don't. But we all have a best friend in God, who is always there trying to shape us, help us, respond to us.

Here's a challenge. Pray always, or without ceasing, this week. Make an effort to remember that God walks with you at all times, down every school corridor, across every practice field, through every shopping centre, and across every street. Talk and listen to God throughout the day. In other words, just hang out together.

What insights about prayer does this reflection offer you?

Luke 18:1
And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint.

Prayer Is A Privilege	Prayer Is The Point Of This Parable	True Prayer Is To Be An Action Of Faith

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSS

The readings today offer various aspects of prayer for our consideration. There is the spiritual discipline of prayer itself, which is essential to the life of the disciple: there is the communal dimension of prayer; and there is the ministerial commitment that is born of prayer. Our personal prayer must be persistent. Like Moses and the woman in the gospel reading, we must be ceaseless in our prayer, not discouraged by difficulties that we might have to face. Regardless of how strange the first reading may appear to be, it very strongly emphasises the communal dimension of prayer.

As minister of the word, Timothy is admonished to keep preaching the gospel, to keep spreading the good news, to allow the scriptures to continue to be a source of wisdom for himself and, through him, for all of the people who hear him. To have this kind of facility with Scripture requires that one enter into the deep meaning of the Scriptures and make them the basis of one's prayer. One must engage in what the monks call lectio divina, prayerful reflective reading of the scriptures. This practice, or spiritual discipline, gives us access to God and it also gives God access to us. It gives us the courage and the gentleness to teach, to refute, to correct. When our ministerial activity flows from prayer, it also flows from and strengthens right relationships with God and with the community. When this becomes a reality, the Son of Man will indeed find faith on earth

DEAR GOD,
I WANT TO TAKE A MINUTE.
NOT TO ASK FOR ANYTHING
FROM YOU. BUT TO SIMPLY SAY THANK YOU. FOR ALL I HAVE.
