30th Anniversary of Pope St John Paul II's Visit

This week, we celebrate the 30th anniversary of Pope St John Paul II's historic visit to Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples. Some excerpts:

'Your culture, which shows the lasting genius and dignity of your race, must not be allowed to disappear ... Your songs, your stories, your paintings, your dances, your languages, must never be lost.'

'If you stay closely united, you are like a tree standing in the middle of a bushfire sweeping through the timber. The leaves are scorched and the tough bark is scarred and burned; but inside the tree the sap is still flowing, and under the ground the roots are still strong. Like that tree you have endured the flames, and you still have the power to be reborn. The time for this rebirth is now!'

'You are part of Australia and Australia is part of you. And the Church herself in Australia will not be fully the Church that Jesus wants her to be until you have made your contribution to her life and until that contribution has been joyfully received by others.' 'you have lived in this land and fashioned a culture that endures to this day. And during all this time, the spirit of God has been with you.'

'For thousands of years this culture of yours was free to grow without interference by people from other places. You lived your lives in spiritual closeness to the land, with its animals, birds, fishes, waterholes, rivers, hills and mountains. You did not spoil the land, use it up, exhaust it, and then walk away from it. You realised that your land was related to the source of life.'

'You have learned how to survive, whether on your own lands, or scattered among the towns and cities. Though your difficulties are not yet over, you must learn to draw on the endurance which your ancient ceremonies have taught you. Endurance brings with it patience; patience helps you to find the way ahead, and gives you courage for your journey.'
