Co-ordinators Report - Joan, Catherine and Michael

We would like to wish everyone a very happy, peaceful and safe Christmas. The Parish had a very productive year, which only happens because of the support so many Parishioners give to our Weekly Liturgies, Sacramental Programs, Support Groups, celebrations and many other activities. This support ensures that we operate as a rich vibrant community. Thank you to the Members of our Committees who give up their time and share their talents/expertise, to guide the wellbeing of the Parish. A special thank you to Father Shane and Father Gary for their availability and guidance throughout 2016, we look to working with you to ensure another successful year in 2017. Thank you for your ongoing support and encouragement to us in our role as Parish Co-ordinators.
