Coordinators News

This weekend we welcome Amanda Smith from the Diocese of Ballarat. Amanda will speak at both of Masses regarding the appointment of a Coordinator in 2017, reviewing the process of discernment. Our prayer and thoughts are also with the victims, families, emergency workers and the many people who have been so badly affected over the tragedy in Melbourne last week. We are looking forward to working with you over 2017. Joan, Catherine and Michael.

Parish Information Evening - Future of St Patrick's

With the recent departure of Sr. Kathleen from the St Patrick's presbytery it is imperative that immediate action is taken to ensure, in the first instance that this magnificent asset is protected from further theft and vandalism and is not allowed to fall into a state of disrepair and neglect that has occurred to St Patrick's convent. The long term future of St Patrick's Gordon assets should be reviewed now that the presbytery is vacant and considering the futile efforts in attempting to find a suitable lessee and alternative uses for the convent; now is the time for a holistic and pragmatic examination of the St Patrick's Gordon current and future requirements.

Domestic Violence: Committing to Prevention and Response

- Violence is not the cure for our broken world
- Jesus also lived in violent times and proclaimed his Good News of love
- Nonviolence is not passive surrender; it is a commitment to justice that is more powerful than violence
- Violence arises from the human heart; therefore, before all else, nonviolence must be practised within families. It is equally urgent to make progress on disarmament and to end domestic violence and the abuse of women and children.
- The beatitudes (Mt 5:3–10) offer a portrait of a blessed, good and authentic person. We are all challenged to apply them in whatever situation we face: to be peacemakers and to show mercy.
- “All of us want peace. Many people build it day by day through small gestures and acts; many of them are suffering, yet patiently persevere in their efforts to be peacemakers. In 2017, may we dedicate ourselves prayerfully and actively to banishing violence from our hearts, words and deeds, and to becoming nonviolent people and to building nonviolent communities that care for our common home.”
