Making Connections: Bring light and life to others this week. Is there some way you can assist in 'healing' another?

Marriage Tip: Has anyone close to you died who has enriched your life? Loss is always hard, but having a spouse to share it with makes it bearable.

Daily Prayer: O God, whose face we long to see, in Christ you come in search of us, judging not by our outward appearance but gazing into our hearts at the light you have kindled. As once you gave Samuel insight to see young David as your shepherd-king, as once you led the man born blind to look on Christ and behold the face of your Anointed, so now clear our vision and focus our sight that all of us, the elect and the baptised, may acknowledge Christ as the Light of the world.

A Vocation View: If we can't see where we're going, we'll never get there. The Good Shepherd leads us to green pastures, refreshes our souls and brings light to a darkened world.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for March

Support for Persecuted Christians

That persecuted Christians may be supported by the prayers and material help of the whole Church.

"Each time you say hello to a stranger, your heart is acknowledging over and over again that we are all family."

Pray as you can - The Word is very close to you: It is in your heart

Reflection is an essential element of growth in Christ. As we reflect over what we have learnt and ponder it in our hearts, we come to recognize the presence of God in our lives.

Fridays in Lent at 10am.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all. Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

Lent

- Lent is a penitential season of prayer, self-denial and helping others. In this way, the whole Church prepares for Easter with those who are being baptised.
- Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence.
- Catholics are obliged to receive holy communion between Ash Wednesday and Trinity Sunday.
- In Lent, the Alleluia is omitted.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

Blessed are the Pure in Heart

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Pure in heart here means single minded. The hearts of the blessed, the truly happy, are not divided between God and football and career and money. Those truly happy have only one God, and look to God alone to be filled. When they play sport, they do it for God's honor and glory, not their own. If they marry, they love Christ and are loved by Christ through their spouse. If they pursue a career or build a business, they do it to advance His kingdom. Reading the Sermon on the Mount, and especially the Beatitudes, is a gut check. It's one of the best of all examinations of conscience, perfect to read before every confession and every Lent. Incidentally, that's what the penitential season of Lent is about. The fasting is meant to re-stimulate our spiritual appetite. The spiritual exercises are designed to shrug off the laziness of sloth. Christianity is not just a matter of believing in God, but avidly pursuing Him. (Dr D' Ambrosio)

Pink is the colour of rejoicing

Fourth Sunday of Lent

The blind man was willing to let Jesus minister to him and willingly did all Jesus asked of him. The Pharisees were more resistant to His message, spending their time and energy to disprove the miracle. Which am I more like, the man born blind or the Pharisees?

"Who except God can give you peace? Has the world ever been able to satisfy the heart?" -St. Gerard Majella

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; THERE IS NOTHING I SHALL WANT

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. R.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil shall I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. R.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory. No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; glory to our God.

Mystery Of Faith

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

With Limited support in Vietnam for the education and social inclusion of children with disabilities, young Nguyet lived an isolated life. Then, through a neighbour, her family became involved with a Caritas-

Australia supported program offering her education, creative outlets and community interaction, and strengthening her parents' skills and support networks. Now Nguyet's mother has great hope for her future.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2017 and give children living with disabilities in Vietnam the opportunity for education and inclusion in their community.

Lent is a time to relive exodus from slavery to freedom

Like the people of Israel freed from the bondage of slavery, Christians are called to experience the path toward hope and new life during the Lenten season, Pope Francis said. Through his passion, death and resurrection, Jesus "has opened up for us a way that leads to a full, eternal and blessed life", the Pope said on Ash Wednesday—the beginning of Lent for Latin-rite Catholics.

"Lent lives within this dynamic: Christ precedes us with his exodus and we cross the desert, thanks to him and behind him," he said.

In his main audience talk, the Pope said that while Lent was a time of "penance and even mortification", it was also 'a time of hope' for Christians awaiting Christ's resurrection to "renew our baptismal identity". CNS

"To live as true children of God means to love our neighbour and to be close to those who are lonely and in difficulty"
Pope Francis

Through Baptism, Christians are integrated in to the Body of Christ, the Church. Membership of the Church breaks through all the natural or human limits of nations, cultures, races and gender.

Child Safety Standards Our Lady Help of Christians Parish has appointed Dion Bartlett as our Safeguarding Officer. We have a Child Safety Policy to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in our care. A Child Safety Code of Conduct has been adopted for all who work with children in the Parish.

Mass of the Oils will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Ballarat at 6.30pm on Monday, April 10. This Mass is a celebration of the whole Church of the Diocese of Ballarat. We celebrate the unity and ministry of the ordained priests in the midst of the entire priestly people of God and Diocese. This Mass also has special significance for those who will use the blessed oils in 2017, the ordained, the sick, those to be baptized and confirmed. All members of the Diocese are invited to this celebration, which truly expresses the unity of the Diocesan Church. James Treffry will receive our Holy Oils from Bishop Paul.
