Sale of Linton Parish Property

Following the authorisation which was included in last week's newsletter from Bishop Paul Bird for the parish to proceed with the sale of St Patrick's Church Springdallah and the vacant allotment of land in Linton (not next to the Presbytery), these properties which the Finance Committee have previously had valued, will be placed in the hands of Ballarat Real Estate to sell.

In May last year members of the parish finance committee and coordinating group led the Linton Parish community gatherings, held in Linton, Skipton, Smythesdale and Snake Valley, which recommended the sale of these properties as part of an ongoing review of Parish properties and maintenance. At some of the church community meetings there were questions raised seeking clarification about the finances of the parish and the proceeds from the sale of any parish property. This was clarified and published on the Parish newsletter on September 11th last year which stated that when a parish sells any property owned by the parish, the proceeds of the sale belong to the parish and remain in the parish (not the Diocese). Proceeds from the sale of Linton Parish property stay in the Linton Parish account and may be used for further major capital improvement or expenses.

From the e-conference Lessons from the Long Paddock

A HEALTHY SPIRITUAL LIFE:

- ❖ Increases participation in life generally.
- ❖ Resists anything that would truncate our humanity, mutilate our sensitivities or stifle our imagination.
- ❖ Confronts us with reality....with what is real and true.
- ❖ Does not super-impose an 'ideal' situation.
- ❖ Invites a deeper connection with ourselves, the world and with others.
- ❖ Renders us more 'other centred'.
- ❖ Continues to create openness to the transcendent possibilities of existence.
- ❖ Does not promise pure consolation, but is able to embrace the mystery of suffering.
- ❖ Is intellectually coherent and accountable.
- ❖ Is open to engagement with, and interpretation by, a religious tradition.
- ❖ Is ethical and works for justice.
- ❖ Holds paradox creatively. (From Across the Great Divide: Fr David Ranson)
